

GRUNDTVIG WORKSHOPS CATALOGUE 2011 - 2012

ABOUT THE GRUNDTVIG WORKSHOPS - LEARNER MOBILITY

Grundtvig Workshops are one of the new actions in the Grundtvig Programme which have been launched in 2009.

The objective of this action is to enable adult learners to participate in Workshops (learning events and seminars) taking place in another European country participating in the Lifelong Learning Programme.

This is a form of individual mobility offered to adult learners in the Lifelong Learning Programme. The Grundtvig Workshops bring together individuals or small groups of learners from several countries for a multinational learning experience relevant for their personal development and learning needs.

A minimum of 10 up to a maximum of 20 learners in total from countries other than that in which the Workshop is being organised, can be funded.

Workshops will last a minimum of 5 days (excluding travel), up to maximum 10 days and take place between 1/9/2011 and 31/8/2012.

The Workshop Organiser is responsible for organising the Workshop, its advertisement, the recruitment of learners, their travel and appropriate board and lodging.

PROFILE OF THE LEARNERS

The Workshops are open to any adult citizen; however, particular attention is given to including people from vulnerable social groups and in marginal contexts, in particular older people and those who have left education without basic qualifications, in order to give these disadvantaged social groups alternative opportunities to access adult education. The action is open to any adult person who is a national of or permanently residing (or registered as refugee or asylum-seeker) in one of the Programme countries, namely: the 27 Member States of the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland (EFTA-EEA countries), Croatia and Turkey (candidate countries). Participants must come from at least three different participating countries, in addition to the host country, and no more than 1/3 of the participants should originate from the same country. Nationals of the country where the Workshop takes place are eligible to participate in the Workshop but cannot be funded through Grundtvig.

LES ATELIERS DE GRUNDTVIG - MOBILITÉ D'APPRENANTS ADULTES

Les Ateliers de Grundtvig est une des nouvelles actions dans le programme de Grundtvig qui ont été lancées en 2009.

L'objectif de cette action est de permettre aux apprenants adultes de participer à des Ateliers (des groupes de travail et des séminaires d'apprentissage) ayant lieu dans un autre pays européen participant au Programme pour l'Education et la Formation tout au long de la Vie.

Il s'agit d'une forme de mobilité offerte aux apprenants adultes dans le cadre du Programme de formation permanente. Les Ateliers Grundtvig rassemblent des personnes ou de petits groupes d'apprenants adultes de plusieurs pays pour une expérience d'apprentissage multinationale, appropriée à leurs besoins de développement et d'apprentissage personnels.

Un minimum de 10 et un maximum de 20 apprenants des pays autres que le pays dans lequel l'Atelier est organisé, peuvent être financés.

Les Ateliers dureront un minimum de 5 jours (à l'exclusion du voyage) et maximum 10 jours et ils auront lieu entre 1er septembre 2011 et 31 août 2012.

L'organisateur d'un Atelier est responsable d'organiser cet Atelier, sa publicité, le recrutement des apprenants, leur voyage et leur logement pension.

Les personnes âgées et/ou les personnes ayant quitté l'école sans avoir acquis les qualifications de base seront particulièrement prises en compte, afin de leur offrir des activités alternatives d'éducation pour adultes. L'action est ouverte à tout citoyen adulte qui est un ressortissant de ou résident de manière permanente (ou enregistré comme réfugié ou demandeur d'asile) dans l'un des pays participant au Programme, à savoir : les 27 États membres de l'Union européenne, l'Islande, le

Les participants doivent venir d'au moins trois différents pays participants, en plus du pays d'accueil, et pas plus de 1/3 des participants devraient venir du même pays. DIE GRUNDTVIG-WORKSHOPS – MOBILITÄT DER LERNENDEN

Die Grundtvig-Workshops gehören zu den neuen Maßnahmen im Rahmen des Programms Grundtvig, die 2009 angelaufen sind.

Mit dieser Maßnahme soll es erwachsenen Lernenden ermöglicht werden, an Workshops (Weiterbildungsveranstaltungen und Seminaren) in einem anderen europäischen Land, das sich am Programm für lebenslanges Lernen beteiligt, teilzunehmen.

Damit steht eine Mobilitätsform für erwachsene Lernende im Rahmen des Programms für lebenslanges Lernen zur Verfügung. Die Grundtvig-Workshops führen Einzelpersonen oder kleine Gruppen von Lernenden aus mehreren Ländern zu einer multinationalen Lernerfahrung zusammen, die für ihre persönliche Entwicklung und ihre Lernbedürfnisse relevant ist.

Mindestens 10 und höchstens 20 Lernende aus anderen Ländern als dem Land, in dem der Workshop veranstaltet wird, können bezuschusst werden.

Die Workshops dauern mindestens 5 und höchstens 10 Tage (ohne An- und Abreise); sie finden zwischen dem 1.9.2011 und dem 31.8.2012 statt.

Der Organisator des Workshops ist für dessen Durchführung, die Werbung, die Rekrutierung der Lernenden, ihre An- und Abreise sowie eine angemessene Unterkunft und Verpflegung zuständig.

Die Maßnahme steht allen erwachsenen Bürgern und Bürgerinnen offen. Allerdings gilt der Einbeziehung von Menschen aus benachteiligten und marginalisierten sozialen Milieus, insbesondere Älteren und Menschen ohne bzw. mit geringer (Grund-)Qualifikation besondere Aufmerksamkeit, um ihnen alternative Zugänge zur Erwachsenenbildung zu ermöglichen.

Die Maßnahme steht allen erwachsenen Bürgern und Bürgerinnen offen die die Staatsangehörigkeit eines der Programmländer besitzen oder ihren ständigen Wohnsitz in einem dieser Länder haben (bzw. dort als Flüchtlinge oder Asylsuchende registriert sind); Programmländer sind: die

27 Mitgliedstaaten der Europäischen Union, Island, Liechtenstein, Norwegen, die Schweiz (EFTA-/EWR-Länder) und Kroatien und die Türkei (Bewerberländer). Die Teilnehmer müssen aus mindestens drei verschiedenen Teilnehmerländern zusätzlich zu dem Gastland kommen; höchstens ein Drittel der Teilnehmer sollte aus demselben Land stammen. The crisis in Europe, the crisis in me - experimenting free writing and creative writing tools

Subject area: Cultural heritage
European citizenship and European dimension
Active citizenship

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

People from all ages (18-80) interested in starting to write and/or hobby writers that like to experiment free writing tools to improve their creativity and overcome the writer's block.

Participants should:

- feel the necessity to write
- feel comfortably writing in English language
- be concerned with their social and political environment as the workshop-themes deal not only with personal crisis but refer to the social, economic, ecological, political and ethical adversities which Europe has to confront.

The workshop is also targeted to people with verbal expressing difficulties like stutterers.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

The workshop revises the wide range of the free writing creativity tools that can be applicable to the composition of texts to express feelings in a spontaneous, often unique way: Personal dissatisfaction and fear, anger, depression, despair are feelings that increase among the people and writing creativity tools can contribute to relieve and surmount them by letting the subconscious flow impulsively into the text.

But the crisis of the soul mostly depends on exterior factors like the general situations in the countries: economic crisis, socio-political crisis (dissatisfaction with the system or fear of rebellions), ethical crisis (decline of values), ecological crisis (e.g. environmental pollution, climate change), media crisis (globalised news) etc. These and other crisis will be treated in the European context as themes for the free writing method practising.

The main purpose of this workshop is to find out how these negative external circumstances affect the mind, which problems of the states and in the trans-national level cause especial consternation or influence us mostly and why.

The expression of discontent and the sharing of despair soothes the nerves, relieves frustrations and contributes to a peaceful together avoiding aggressions in times of increasing protests and rebellions.

The resulting texts will be posted on a website, announced by free media and sent to policymakers.

L'atelier thématique proposé s'adresse à un public mixte de plus de 50 ans, désirant faire l'expérience de la création artistique dans un contexte interculturel

Thematic workshops addressed to people above 50 years old who wish to experiment an artistic creation's process within an intercultural context.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Grâce à des pédagogies et un accompagnement adaptés, les apprenants auront rapidement les outils (ateliers d'écriture, danse, musique et image) pour imaginer et créer un clip-vidéo qui les représente, ou qui contienne un message/une forme qu'ils aimeraient diffuser. Il n'y a aucun pré-requis technique ou théorique pour découvrir ce que nous appelons les « Principes Actifs de l'Art », c'est-à-dire les fondamentaux de la danse, de la musique, de l'écriture scénaristique et de l'image (le geste, le bruit, l'observation, l'arrière-plan, etc.). L'atelier a pour but d'offrir à nos apprenants la possibilité d'accorder un temps à la création, et ce à un moment de leur vie où l'aboutissement d'une carrière professionnelle et/ou le désir de partage d'expérience sont particulièrement propices au développement d'une expression personnelle. L'atelier se déroulera en partenariat avec la Biennale Internationale de la Photographie et les participants pourront confronter l'évolution de leur regard sur la création contemporaine avec leur propre expérience de la créativité et à travers des visites d'expositions et la rencontre d'artistes.

Through pedagogical guidance learners will quickly acquire tools (through writing, dancing, music and image workshops) to imagine and create a video-clip representing themselves or containing a message they would like to disseminate. No technical or theoretical background is required to explore what we call « Active Principles of Art », that are the basics of dancing, music making, script writing and picture making/shooting (observing, gesture, sound, back-ground picture, etc.) The workshops aim at offering learners the opportunity to dedicate a time to creation, at a turning point of their life when the achievement of a professional career and/or desire for experience sharing are keen to encourage development of a personal expression. The workshops will take place during the International Biennale for Photography (BIP 2012) to give the opportunity to the learners to put their experience of the creative workshops into perspective with their opinion of the contemporary creation. They will indeed have the opportunity to visit exhibitions and meet artists.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Mit unserem Workshop möchten wir am Thema `Gesunde Lebensweisen` interessierte Bürger der EU über das Thema informieren und gleichzeitig durch gezielte Aktivitäten den Lernerfolg verstärken, wobei auch der kulturelle Austausch zum Thema ein zentraler Punkt sein wird. Anhand von 4 Themenkomplexen werden Sichtweisen der Teilnehmer aufgegriffen: • Gesunde Lebensführung • gesunde Ernährung • Präventive Maßnahmen • Sport/körperliche Bewegung Anhand von Beispielen wird das eigene Verhalten in Bezug zu dem Themenkomplex reflektiert. Unser Workshop ist eine Plattform für einen Erfahrungsaustausch zwischen Menschen aus unterschiedlichen europäischen Ländern. Gemeinsamkeiten und Unterschiede sollen in einem Vergleich festgestellt werden. Gesundheitsförderliche Faktoren werden zusammen mit den Referenten erarbeitet und durch Bewegungseinheiten aufgelockert. Wir wollen zusammen Spaß haben und unsere persönliche Definition von Gesundheit und unsere persönlichen Gesundheitsziele finden. Gesundheit erleben - wie sich die ersten Schritte zum Ziel anfühlen. Angebote sollen gemeinsam entwickelt werden, in denen das Bewusstsein für Fragen einer gesunden Lebensweise gestärkt werden sollen. Die Teilnehmer, die in Gruppen zusammen arbeiten, lernen sich durch das Thema gegenseitig kennen, bauen Vorurteile ab und entwickeln ein besseres gegenseitiges Verständnis untereinander. Es findet ein internationaler Erfahrungsaustausch statt. Der Workshop beinhaltet folgende Inhalte und Aktivitäten: Wir werden diskutieren, gemeinsam gesund kochen und uns fit und aktiv bewegen. Hierbei geht es nicht darum „besonders fit oder professionell zu sein“ – die gemeinsamen Bewegungsaktivitäten bieten uns die Möglichkeit, gemeinsam Spaß zu haben und durch gemeinsame Aktivitäten Sprachbarrieren zwischen verschiedenen Kulturen zu überwinden. • Motivation- Bewusstseinsänderung zu einer gesunden Lebensweise und Bewegung für sich selber, aber auch um andere zu motivieren und die Workshop-Erkenntnisse weiterzugeben • Erweiterung der interkulturellen und kommunikativen Kompetenzen der Teilnehmer •

Subject area: Cultural heritage
Intercultural education
Basic skills for adult learners

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

The theatre workshop is for all those interested in improving their communication skills and who would like to learn more about voice training and body language. The aim is to gain self-confidence and assuredness in stressful or conflict situations and to learn ways of improving the quality of daily interactions with others in general

Der Theater- Workshop richtet sich an alle, die ihr Kommunikationsverhalten optimieren möchten und Interesse daran haben, sich auf dem Gebiet von Stimmeinsatz und Körpersprache weiterzubilden und dadurch lernen wollen, auch in Stress-, Panik- und Konfliktsituationen sicher und souverän aufzutreten oder ihren Umgang mit Mitmenschen im Alltag verbessern wollen.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Effective use of non-verbal communication, including voice and eye-contact, is essential for successful communication with others. This workshop will provide you with the tools for a confidently getting your message across at home or at work. The workshop starts off with practical exercises in body-awareness, voice and speech, with breathing techniques as the basis for relaxed communication. During the subsequent analysis you will learn strategies for coping successfully with stress or conflicts. You will also have the chance to practice effective and cooperative interaction in a non-threatening atmosphere, using monologues, dialogues, pair-work and role-plays. Whether you have to deal with unfriendly salespeople or officials, complaining neighbours, difficult employers or associates, recalcitrant teenagers or simple customer enquiries, you can experiment with and practice innovative problem-solving approaches in a supportive and fun environment. Of particular interest are intercultural issues, with people of diverse nationalities taking part in the workshop. The focus will be on communicating effectively, independently of whether or not there is a common language. During the stage rehearsals you are simultaneously participant and observer. The Workshop offers the chance to give and receive feedback on your self-presentation and how others perceive you. The Workshop language is English. Basic knowledge of English is required.

Egal, mit wem und in welcher Situation Sie mit Mitmenschen kommunizieren, Ihre körpersprachlichen Signale sowie Stimme und Blick spielen dabei eine wesentliche Rolle. Dieser Workshop gibt Ihnen Werkzeuge zum sicheren und souveränen Auftreten in Ihrem privaten und beruflichen Umfeld. Der Einstieg in die Thematik erfolgt über praktische Übungen zur Körperarbeit, zum Stimm- und Sprechtraining sowie zur Atemtechnik als Basis für entspanntes Sprechen. Durch die anschließende Analyse werden Strategien zum erfolgreichen Umgang mit Stress und Nervosität vor Konfliktgesprächen erlernt. Weiterhin trainieren Sie in einem geschützten Rahmen anhand von Monologen, Dialogen, Partnerarbeiten und Rollenspielen zielorientiertes und soziales Miteinander. Ob unfreundlicher Verkäufer, nörgelnder Nachbar oder Kollege, polternder Konfliktpartner oder Vorgesetzter, aufsässiger Jugendlicher, reklamierender Käufer oder einfach nur fragender Kunde: der szenisch-spielerische Umgang mit Problemen ermöglicht hierbei die Erprobung und das Training alternativer Handlungsoptionen für Ihren Alltag sowie Ihre berufliche Praxis. Die Thematisierung kultureller Unterschiede wird im Workshop aufgrund der verschiedenen Herkunftsländer der Teilnehmer/innen besonders spannend sein. Sie arbeiten an einer ausdrucksstarken Kommunikation, ohne dabei wirklich auf eine gemeinsame Sprachbasis angewiesen zu sein. Während der szenischen Proben sind Sie gleichermaßen Akteur und Beobachter, analysieren Selbst- und Fremdbild, geben und bekommen Feedback. Der Workshop wird in englischer Sprache gehalten. Grundkenntnisse in Englisch sind erforderlich.

Health art mobilises Goslar

Subject area: Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music
Health education
Other

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

All interested people are invited to participate. In particular those who > are interested to perceive and to “dive into” a foreign city > have a reference on health topics > want to present their impressions and ideas through art objects. It is not expected that the participants already worked artistically before joining the workshop! But for the workshop it’s important that the participants are willing to learn about ways of artistic expression and that they want to transfer information by the creation of an artistic object.

Zur Teilnahme sind alle Interessierten eingeladen, die: > eine fremde Stadt „erleben und wahrnehmen“ möchten > einen Bezug zum Thema Gesundheit haben > ihre Eindrücke und Ideen in einem Kunstobjekt darstellen möchten. Es wird von den Teilnehmern nicht erwartet, dass sie bisher künstlerisch gearbeitet haben! Für den Workshop ist allerdings die Bereitschaft notwendig, sich über künstlerische Ausdrucksmöglichkeiten informieren zu lassen und sich durch die Schaffung eines Kunstobjekts thematisch mitzuteilen.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Taking the city of Goslar as an example, people who are interested in art can recognize how art and artistic activities can give an innovative contribution to a city which is willing to change. The topic "Health Art mobilises Goslar" will be implemented by all participants with individual art objects. In the morning, participants will go towards the town centre and personally carry out what future opportunities could be possible for Goslar in the health sector. The impressions will then be discussed with interested artists / citizens / groups. Every afternoon the participants work on the artistic realisation of the topic. Each participant creates an individual work of art. Results are presented to the group and to the interested public.

Am Beispiel der Stadt Goslar sollen Kunstinteressierte erkennen, wie Kunst und künstlerische Aktivität einen innovativen Beitrag für eine veränderungswillige Stadt leisten kann. Das Thema “Gesundheitskunst bewegt Goslar” wird von allen Teilnehmern in Form eines individuellen Kunstobjekts umgesetzt. Jeweils morgens werden sich die Teilnehmer in der Stadt aufhalten und bewegen, um persönlich wahrzunehmen, welche Zukunftschancen im Bereich Gesundheit für Goslar möglich sind. Ihre Eindrücke werden sie jeweils mit interessierten Künstler/Bürgern/Gesellschaftsgruppen diskutieren. Jeden Nachmittag wird an der künstlerischen Umsetzung des Themas gearbeitet, jeder Teilnehmer erstellt ein individuelles Kunstwerk. Ergebnisse werden der Gruppe und einer interessierten Öffentlichkeit präsentiert.

Europäische BürgerInnen, vorwiegend fortgeschrittenen Alters (50plus), Senioren sowie Erwachsene mit Behinderungen - die interessiert sind an gleichberechtigter Teilhabe/Inklusion und an einem barrierefreien Zugang zur Kunst und Kultur - die interessiert sind, sich mit künstlerischen Techniken und Ausdrucksformen (Grafik/Drucktechnik, Ölmalerei, Gedichte/Schreibwerkstatt usw.) in der Praxis zu beschäftigen - die eine gemeinsame, intensive und internationale Lernerfahrung erleben möchten.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

It is one goal of the workshop to transfer the regulations of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities to practice, especially the equal rights (article 12) and the inclusion (article 24) of adults with disabilities and senior citizens. By using and learning special forms of arts and crafts (print, oil painting, poems etc.), the participants will have the possibility to express themselves and to become self-confident in a creative way.

Der Workshop „Barrierefreie Kunst“ stellt eine Plattform für den Austausch zwischen älteren Menschen sowie Erwachsenen mit oder ohne Behinderungen aus unterschiedlichen europäischen Ländern dar und soll den inklusiven Gedanken der UN-Behindertenrechts-konvention sowie den europäischen Gedanken durch die Kunst vermitteln und fördern. Darüber hinaus sollen die Teilnehmer mit einer breiten Vielfalt von künstlerischen Techniken und Ausdrucksformen (Grafik/Drucktechnik, Ölmalerei, Gedichte/Schreibwerkstatt) bekannt gemacht werden, um diese während des Workshops intensiver vertiefen zu können. Bei der Umsetzung ihrer kreativen Vorstellungen unterstützen sich die Teilnehmer gegenseitig, erhalten aber auch Unterstützung von einem internationalen Künstlerteam. Ein Höhepunkt ist eine Vernissage mit den Werken der Teilnehmer am Ende des Workshops. Die Kunst ist in diesem Projekt als „barrierefreie Kommunikations- und Ausdrucksform“ zu sehen. Target Group + Translation:

Europäische BürgerInnen verschiedener Altersgruppen, - die positiven Aspekte der Integration und des Zusammenlebens in Berlin erleben wollen, - die selbst Migration Hintergrund haben und die eigene „kultureller Brille“ kennen lernen wollen, - die Interesse an interkulturellem Austausch haben.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Das Zusammenleben von Menschen unterschiedlicher Kulturen prägt das Bild Berlins. Täglich treffen hier Menschen unterschiedlichster nationaler und kultureller Herkunft aufeinander. Die Berliner selbst verstehen sich als Gesellschaft von Individuen und Gruppen mit unterschiedlichen Identitäten (unter anderem in Bezug auf ethnische, sexuelle, sprachliche und religiöse Hintergründe). Die verschiedenen Lebensperspektiven spielen bei allen Fragen des Zusammenlebens eine wesentliche Rolle. Mit diesem Workshop wollen wir zusammen das multikulturelle Berlin kennen lernen. Wir erleben wie Vielschichtigkeit und Veränderlichkeit der Identitäten in Berlin wertgeschätzt wird und damit einen Beitrag zur Annäherung und besseren gegenseitigen Verstehens liefern. Damit die positiven Aspekte der Integration und des Zusammenlebens in Berlin hautnah erlebt werden können, bekommt jeder Workshoptag sein eigenes kulturelles Thema, das wir auf eine spielerische Art und Weise erkunden werden. In den Nachmittagsrunden werden wir gemeinsam unsere Erlebnisse auswerten und reflektieren und es anschließend mit Hilfe unseres interkulturellen Wissens und Erfahrungen strukturieren und Wege für den Transfer ins eigene Leben finden.

Grundtvig Workshops bring together individual or small groups of learners from several countries for an innovative multinational learning experience relevant for their personal development and learning needs, in which learners are also encouraged to share their competences and insights actively with others. This workshop will have 15 learners and take place in Berlin. The main objective is to enable participants to find their individual access to the concepts of diversity and the idea of anti-discrimination. This shall be achieved by transferring knowledge on diversity and anti-discrimination, by raising awareness for the relevance of diversity categories in social interaction and by developing and exchanging individual strategies tackling sexist, racist and homophobic remarks. The subjects of gender, ethnicity and sexual identity will be addressed through short presentations and interactive activities. The workshop uses a variety of methodologies focusing on interactive and cooperative learning activities. There will be a mix of workshop-based working and lectures or presentations with discussions. Most of the sessions will be workshop-based involving awareness raising activities, individual reflection, pair work, small group activities, peer teaching sessions, simulations, discussions and practical training practises. The learning activities integrate "head, heart and hands": the cognitive level (knowledge transfer), self reflexive level (awareness raising) and practical level (action-related competence and skills). Working language in the workshop is English (knowledge of Elementary English is sufficient for participation).

Internetnutzung für Senior/-innen, kreativ, kooperativ, europaweit

Subject area: European citizenship and European dimension
New technologies, ICT
Intergenerational learning / learning in later life / senior citizens

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Zielgruppen des Workshops sind erwachsene Lernende (aus Universitäten des 3. Lebensalters und vergleichbaren Organisationen), die sich im Bereich der neuen Medien weiterbilden möchten, um diese langfristig als neue Wissensquelle und neues Kommunikationsmittel für die europäische Zusammenarbeit zu nutzen. Auf Grund der Thematik des Workshops sind besonders Lernende aus den südosteuropäischen Ländern aufgefordert, diesen Workshop zu besuchen.

The workshop is aimed at adult learners 50+ (from Universities of the 3rd Age and similar organizations) who want to learn more about the use of new media and use it as a new source of information, participation and as a means of communication in the future. Due to the thematic focus of the workshop, especially learners from south-east-Europe are encouraged to participate.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Die Hauptaktivität des Workshops besteht darin, das Internet als Vehikel zur europäischen Zusammenarbeit in der Seniorenbildung auf der Ebene der Lernenden erfahrbar zu machen. Die Teilnehmer/-innen bekommen einen Einblick in den Umgang mit neuen Medien, v.a. in die Nutzung virtueller, interaktiver Werkzeuge (u.a. Chat, Skype, Video Conferencing, Blogs, virtuelle Zusammenarbeit (Mind Mapping, BSCW)). Zusätzlich werden Nutzungsmöglichkeiten der neuen Medien in der Seniorenbildung anhand von Good Practice Beispielen in der Arbeit vor Ort und in europäischen Zusammenarbeiten aufgezeigt. In gemeinsamer Zusammenarbeit soll ein eigenes virtuelles Projekt erarbeitet werden, um die erworbenen Kenntnisse umzusetzen und die Möglichkeit zur Weiterarbeit in einem Projekt auch über den Workshop hinaus zu gewährleisten. Im Rahmen dieses Projekts können die im Workshop erworbenen Kenntnisse auch an andere Interessenten in den Organisationen der Teilnehmenden weitergegeben werden, so dass ein nachhaltiger Transfer gesichert ist.

The main goal of this workshop is to make the use of the internet and new media in seniors' education perceptible on the level of the learners. The participants will gain an insight into the use of new media, especially virtual, interactive tools (such as Skype, Video conferencing, blogs, and virtual interaction (mind mapping, BSCW)). Furthermore, the areas of use will be illustrated by good practice examples on location and in European co-operations. The participants will develop a virtual mini-project in which they can put their new skills to the test and utilize them sustainably. This also gives them the opportunity to cooperate in a project that exceeds the time of the workshop and in which they can transfer their new skills to other interested people in their organization.

Ökologisch interessierte Menschen, alters- und geschlechtergemischt, die im Workshop die Möglichkeit haben, sich auszutauschen

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Aus einer Bestandsaufnahme durch die Methode des „ökologischen Fußabdrucks“ jedes Teilnehmers (auf der Basis eines Fragebogens) ermitteln wir gemeinsam, wie groß der persönliche Ressourcen- und Energieverbrauch durch das Verhalten beim Wohnen, in Verkehr, Ernährung und Konsum im Jahr ist. Die erwarteten unterschiedlichen Ergebnisse werden diskutiert, visualisiert, es werden Anregungen gegeben und verarbeitet. Es soll deutlich gemacht werden, dass durch bewusstes Handeln ein Beitrag des Einzelnen zum Klimaschutz geleistet werden kann. Auf dieser Basis erfolgen Aktionen, die die Erkenntnisse weiter verdeutlichen, wie - Gemeinsamer Einkauf von Nahrungsmitteln unter Berücksichtigung von Ökosiegeln für die Zubereitung einer ökologisch gesunden Mahlzeit mit Beachtung des jeweiligen länderspezifischen Flairs - Betrachtungen zur Abfallwirtschaft und des Recyclings vor dem Hintergrund einer nachhaltigen Ressourcenschonung – Erfahrungen und Sammeln von Ideen, Verwendung mitgebrachter Fotos der Teilnehmer zur Abfallentsorgung im Heimatort und der jeweiligen Entsorgungspraktiken. - Besuch einer Mehrgenerationen-Hausgemeinschaft in einem von ihr gebauten ökologischen Haus und Diskussion mit den Menschen über Gründe dieser Initiative, die sich auf ihre gesamte Lebensweise auswirkt und der Vor- und Nachteile - Wir bauen ein Öko-Hausmodell aus Abfall- bzw. gebrauchten Produkten auf der Basis des Gelernten - Abschließend arbeiten wir die Möglichkeiten und Grenzen heraus, die jeder selber hat, um einen Beitrag zur Bewahrung der Schöpfung zu leisten. (im Rahmen einer SWOT-Analyse- Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats).

From a survey using the “ecological footprint” method to determine the ecological footprint of each participant (on the basis of a questionnaire) the students determine the size of their own personal annual use of energy and resources in respect of their lifestyle taking in to consideration housing, transport, eating and consumer goods. The expected varying results will be discussed, visualised, suggestions made and worked on. It should be made clear that through the actions of each individual that a contribution to climate protection can be made. Based on the knowledge gained further steps will be taken: - The shared purchase of food taking into consideration eco labels to produce a meal with the specific flair of each of the individual countries (of the participants) - Looking at the refuse and recycling with a view to a sustainable and protective use of resources- Gathering ideas and experiences; using photos of refuse disposal and refuse disposal practices in the countries of the respective participants. - Visit to multi generation commune in a ecological house built by them and a discussion with the residents over the reasons for taking this decision that has a big influence on their lifestyle and about the advantages and disadvantages of this decision - We will build a ecological house model from refuse e.g. used products on the basis of what we have learned. - Concluding with an analysis of the possibilities and limitations, that everybody has to make a contribution to the integrity of creation within the framework of a SWOT-analysis (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats).

Beruf-(Sinn)-Krise / Career - Identity - Crisis

Subject area: Inclusive approaches

Learning opportunities for people at risk of social marginalisation
Social integration / exclusion

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Menschen, die ihre Arbeitslosigkeit oder ihr prekäres Arbeitsverhältnis als Krisensituation erleben
English: People who consider their unemployment oder unsecure employment as a crisis situation

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Heutzutage durchlaufen immer weniger Menschen noch ein traditionelles Berufsleben mit einer unbefristeten Stelle oder geringen Unterbrechungszeiten zwischen dem Wechsel der Beschäftigungsverhältnisse. Menschen wechseln heute häufiger den Arbeitsplatz und erleben öfter Zeiten der Nichtbeschäftigung. Dies ist u.a. zurückzuführen auf flexiblere Arbeitsmärkte, welche jedoch auch zu größeren Unsicherheiten beitragen und ein höheres Risiko für den/ die Einzelne/n bedeuten, von Arbeitslosigkeit betroffen zu werden. Ausgangspunkt des Workshops ist die Anerkennung der Arbeitslosigkeit und des prekären Arbeitsverhältnisses als persönliche Krisensituation. Diese Grundhaltung soll es dem/der Teilnehmenden ermöglichen über seine/ihre Krise zu sprechen und zu schildern wie er/sie damit umgeht. Im Fokus des Workshops steht dabei nicht die (Neu-)Qualifizierung und sofortige Integration des/der Einzelnen in den Arbeitsmarkt, sondern der Gedanke, dass in einer job- und berufsbedingten Krise Chancen liegen, welche es zu erkennen gilt. Die Teilnehmer/innen können die verschiedenen Möglichkeiten innerhalb des Workshops nutzen, sich mit der eigenen job- und berufsbedingten Krise auseinanderzusetzen und erkennen Chancen. Das Leitziel unseres Workshops ist es den/die Teilnehmende zu hören, so dass er/sie die Möglichkeit hat, zu Wort zu kommen und über seine/ ihre Krise zu sprechen. Kommunikation und Bewegung sind zentrale Elemente des Workshops: Ermutigen – Zuhören – Austauschen – Bewegen. Das Element „Bewegung“ wird z.B. in Form von City-Walks umgesetzt, wobei wir die „fremde“ Stadt entdecken und ein neues Bild auf unser eigenes Umfeld gewinnen werden. Auch möglichen Sprachproblemen wird genügend Zeit und Raum eingeräumt, u.a. durch vorbereitende Englischsprachkurse, um das Thema der „Sprachlosigkeit“ aufzugreifen und zu überwinden. Wer seine Bedürfnisse benennen und kommunizieren kann hat sie erkannt und ist so in der Lage im Anschluss (klassische und andere) Angebote besser auszuwählen und zu nutzen. Dies soll es Ihnen als Teilnehmer/in erleichtern zu erkennen, dass Sie z.B. kein Bewerbertraining brauchen, sondern „entdecken“ u.U. Angebote für sich, die Sie vorher nicht gesehen haben bzw. für sich nicht in Betracht gezogen haben. Wir laden daher herzlich Jeden/e, der Lust am europäischen Erfahrungsaustausch und Kommunikation hat und sich in einem prekären Arbeitsverhältnis - d.h. zeitlich befristete Arbeitsverhältnisse, jeglicher Form von Zeitarbeit, wo das Arbeitsentgelt nicht oder gerade so ausreicht, um den Lebensunterhalt zu bestreiten, unfreiwillige Freiberuflichkeit (aus der Not geboren) - oder ohne Arbeitsverhältnis ist oder eine job-und berufsbedingte Krise bewältigt hat, ein bei unserem Workshop mitzumachen. Sie als Teilnehmer/in haben die Möglichkeit in einem europäischen Kontext Ihre Erfahrungen zu teilen und zu beschreiben, um u.a. neue Wege und Strategien zu finden mit Ihrer Krise umzugehen. Der Workshop soll so dazu beitragen Inspiration und neue Ideen zu gewinnen, um die eigene Krise als Chance zum Lernen zu nutzen.

Today many people are experiencing the change of “traditional” employment biographies characterised by having a job in one particular firm over most of the working life to very frequent job changes. However, the trend towards flexible labour markets across Europe involves also greater job insecurity, resulting in higher unemployment risks which individuals are facing throughout their “working lifespan”. Starting point for our workshop is the recognition of unemployment and precarious employments as a personal crisis. This stance on the issue should allow the participants to open up, to talk about it and to describe how they deal with their crisis which will guide us through the workshop. Hence, the focus of the workshop is not to qualify or (re-)integrate people immediately into the labour market, but rather the idea that a crisis presents also opportunities to discover. Central element of the workshop is to listen to the each participant and to give them the chance to speak out. Communication and moving are the essences to put this idea into action. Encouraging – Listen – Exchanging – Sharing – Moving. A person that can name and communicate one’s own needs will also be able to choose between different choices and select the “right” opportunities. We want to support our participants through the workshop in making their choices and realising that they might not need another application training, but want to enlarge their horizon and to look for other offers around them which fit their needs. We invite interested people who want to share their experience and like to communicate from across Europe, and who are in a precarious employment – i.e. temporary employments, working poor, self-employed out of necessity – who are unemployed or who have overcome a professional or job related crisis. The results of the workshop will depend on each single participant. The knowledge will be gained though the group, thereby the participants are the experts of themselves which includes also the trainers as learners in the process. Everyone contributes with their experience of unemployment or precarious employments. The participants have the opportunity to share and describe their experience in a European context in order to find also new ways in dealing with their crisis. The workshop wants to give inspiration and provide inputs to use the crisis as chance and opportunity to learn.

Europeans – Making music together

Subject area: Intercultural education

Other

NULL

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

This workshop is open to European citizens interested in making music together, learning from each other and developing their musical skills and familiarity with the cultural and musical background of the participants. The workshop will culminate in a session performance in a cultural centre involving participants, teachers and local musicians. Since activities will be both in whole-group sessions and in smaller bands, the workshop is open to diverse levels of expertise, from experienced musicians to students and less experienced players, irrespective of instrument.

Der Workshop richtet sich an alle europäischen Bürger/innen, die interessiert sind, zusammen mit anderen Musik zu machen, voneinander zu lernen und ihr musikalisches Können und Wissen um kulturelle Besonderheiten der verschiedenen Länder der Teilnehmer zu erweitern, um zum Abschluss des Workshops zusammen mit den Dozenten, regionalen Musikern und Workshop-Teilnehmern ein Konzert in Form einer Session in einem Kultur-Lokal zu geben. Da die Teilnehmer/innen im Plenum und in kleineren Bands spielen, können sowohl weniger Geübte und Musiklernende als auch fortgeschrittene und erfahrene Musiker unabhängig vom Instrument teilnehmen.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

The Workshop will focus on making music together. For instance, each participant will present a song from his or her country for everybody to learn and rehearse together. This gives people the chance to share their knowledge of cultural aspects of the music and learn new material. During the five-day Workshop daily teaching sessions are planned (all participants together) with rehearsals in smaller bands. At the end of each day, the bands will present their results in the round. Optionally, the results of the daily music-making sessions can be audio recorded for joint analysis. This form of external feedback allows each participant to reflect upon and learn from his or her “band contribution”. The culmination and highlight of the Workshop is a public performance in a local cultural centre. The session format will bring together the varying musical skills and styles of teachers and participants as well as local musicians who enjoy playing with musicians from other countries. This performance will be publicly announced and advertised. To round off and complement the Workshop programme, a cultural programme in the Passau region is also offered. The Workshop language is English. Basic knowledge of English is sufficient.

Der Workshop legt sein Hauptaugenmerk auf das gemeinsame Musikmachen. U. a. soll jede/r Workshop-Teilnehmer/in ein Lied aus seinem Land auswählen, das im Workshop vorgestellt und gemeinsam gelernt werden soll. So tauschen die Teilnehmer kulturelle Aspekte der Musik ihres Landes aus und können Neues ausprobieren. Während des 5-tägigen Workshops finden täglich gemeinsame Akademien (alle Teilnehmer zusammen) und Proben in kleineren Bands statt. Am Ende des Tages präsentieren die Bands ihre Ergebnisse dem gesamten Plenum. Ausgewählte Stücke des gemeinsamen Musizierens werden während der Akademie auf Wunsch auf Tonträger aufgenommen, und gemeinsam analysiert. Somit kann jede/r Teilnehmer/in seinen "Bandbeitrag" auch "von außen" reflektieren und dadurch optimieren. Den Abschluss und Höhepunkt des Workshops stellt ein Konzert dar, das vor Publikum in einem Lokal der örtlichen Kulturszene gespielt wird. Das Konzert in Form einer Session vereint die musikalischen Fähigkeiten und verschiedenen Musikstile von Dozenten, Workshop-Teilnehmer sowie allen Musikinteressierten der Region, die Spaß daran haben, mit Musikern anderer Länder zu spielen. Dieses Konzert wird öffentlich angekündigt und beworben. Das Workshop-Programm wird durch ein kulturelles Programm in der Region Passau ergänzt und abgerundet. Der Workshop wird in englischer Sprache (Übersetzung ins Deutsche möglich, falls gewünscht) gehalten. Grundkenntnisse in Englisch sind ausreichend.

People who consider themselves as being too fat.

Menschen, die sich mit ihrem Körper befassen, weil sie sich subjektiv zu dick empfinden. Dies trifft nach vielfältigen Untersuchungen besonders bei Frauen aber zunehmend auch bei Männern in Europa mehrheitlich zu.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

People, who find themselves too fat, circle in their minds a lot about their body. They focus on weight, weight loss and only if this is achieved, they can begin an equal life and thus participate fully in our society. In our workshop we want to question this basic idea. We will look together at social and cultural norms that influence this development. And the consequences of these requirements for people who do not meet the standards. In addition to the social context we will also look to the individual needs of the participants. What would change in life when the idea of only changing one's body must be changed? Is a healthy life in the present body imaginable? What are the consequences of diets to health and what other food, nutrition and physical activities are possible for a healthy life? Both views, the view towards society as well as on their own lives, we are looking forward to work with people from different cultures and learn from their different experiences. We expect the European perspective of a width which increases the variety of perspectives still further. Together we want to look at the European anti-discrimination policy and the national implementations. We will verify whether this legislation is sufficient concerning protection from discrimination based on body shape or which additions would maybe be necessary.

Menschen, die sich zu dick finden, kreisen in ihren Gedanken viel um ihre Figur. Es geht um Bestrebungen, abzunehmen und erst dann ein gleichberechtigtes Leben in unserer Gesellschaft beginnen zu können, eben voll dazuzugehören. In unserem Workshop wollen wir diesen Grundgedanken hinterfragen. Wir werden gemeinsam auf gesellschaftliche Bilder und kulturelle Normen blicken, die diese Entwicklung begünstigt. Und welche Folgen diese Vorgaben für Menschen haben, die den Normen nicht entsprechen. Ergänzend zum gesellschaftlichen Kontext wird es aber auch um die individuellen Vorstellungen der Teilnehmenden gehen. Was würde sich im Leben verändern, wenn die Vorstellung, erst den eigenen Körper verändern zu müssen, sich verändert? Ist ein gesundes Leben im jetzigen Körper vorstellbar? Welche Folgen haben Diäten für die Gesundheit und welche andere Lebens-, Ernährungs- und Bewegungsformen sind denkbar für ein gesundes Leben? Beide Blickwinkel, den Blick auf die Gesellschaft wie auch auf das eigene Leben, wollen wir gerne mit Menschen aus verschiedenen Kulturen bearbeiten. Wir versprechen uns von diesem Europäischen Blickwinkel eine Breite, die die Vielfalt der Perspektiven nochmals deutlich vergrößert. Gemeinsam wollen wir das Europäische Anti-Diskriminierungsgesetz und die nationalen Umsetzungen anschauen und überprüfen, ob diese Gesetzgebung für einen Schutz vor Diskriminierung aufgrund der Körperform ausreicht oder in welche Richtung hier eine Ergänzung notwendig wäre.

Better health through living food and wild herbs

Subject area: Health education

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

The workshop aims at everyone who wants to actively take a more conscious approach to food and health in their life. No special skills or knowledge required. Everyone older than 18 years can take part, also people with special dietarian needs.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Healthy food is the best medicine. By introducing more raw living food into your diet you can increase your health at no extra costs. Modern raw cuisine is anything but dull carrot-nibbling. With its wide range of fruits, vegetables, greens, algae, nuts, seeds and sprouts etc., there is no limitation to your imagination and creativity. In theory and practice you will learn the basics of preparation as well as the special treats. One focus lies on edible wild greens, how to recognize them, how to get them and why they are so good for everyone. More than 1.500 edible wild plants exist in Middle Europe alone. On the workshop area they grow in abundance and we will take walks to collect them every day and so learn from experience. And what is good for us is also good for the planet. We will address the impacts our eating habits have on society and the environment and how easy it can be to make a significant difference.

Target Group + Translation:

Interessierte Lerner aus ganz Europa. Wir bieten diesen Workshop allen Bürgern der EU an, die sich mit dem eigenen kulturellen Erbe, dem zusammenwachsenden Europa und Fragen der Gemeinsamkeiten bzw. des Trennenden auseinandersetzen möchten. Wir möchten Sie sensibilisieren für Fragen einer Europäischen Identität, für Möglichkeiten der Kooperation und für Beispiele guter Praxis im zusammenwachsenden Europa hat Priorität. Da das „Bildungsprojekt Europa“ in den kommenden Jahren für die Stabilisierung der "Ressource Wissen" zunehmend an Bedeutung gewinnen wird, ist es von großer Bedeutung, den Zugang zu „Wissen“ möglichst einfach anzulegen, um erwachsenen Lernern in einen gemeinsamen Prozess des Bewusstmachens und des Beachtens einzubinden. Es ist weder in der schulischen Bildung noch in der akademischen Bildung selbstverständlich, die Europäische Dimension adäquat zu thematisieren, obwohl dies in Curricula weitgehend vorgeschrieben ist. Wir wollen gemeinsam Wege und Möglichkeiten entwickeln, um mit anschaulichen Mitteln (Sprichwörtern/ Redensarten) einen Zugang zu unserem gemeinsamen europäischen Erbe zu finden. Wir haben bereits eine große Sammlung solcher Sprichwörter und Redensarten, die wir nutzen können, um gemeinsam einen Zugang zu dem Thema zu finden, wollen dann aber auch weitere sprachliche Beispiele gemeinsam sammeln.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Der Workshop wird im Wesentlichen aus drei verschiedenen Elementen bestehen: - Präsentation und Nutzung einiger Produkte aus dem LINGUA-Projekt "JIP" - Besuch unterschiedlicher „anderer Lernorte“ (Museen, Theater, Denkmale) zur Bestimmung „europäischer Identität“ und sprachlicher Umsetzung bestimmter identitätsstiftender Objekte, Orte, Erfahrungen ... - Entwicklung von Netzwerken zur weiteren Kooperation im Bereich Bildung, Kultur und Identitätsforschung. Hier wird ein Schwerpunkt auf eine besondere sprachliche Form - Sprichwörter und Redensarten - gelegt, um kulturelles Erbe, religiöse und landestypische Traditionen zu erkunden, vorzustellen und zu vergleichen. Sie werden als Teilnehmer bei diesen Aktivitäten von mehreren europäischen Referenten betreut, um bereits im Team der Workshopleitung „Europa“ abzubilden. Alle Module sind als interaktive Module angelegt, d.h. nach kurzen Inputs sollen Sie selbständig zu den Bereichen kleine Lösungspakete entwickeln und dies mit den anderen Teilnehmern diskutieren. Wir wollen eine Broschüre zusammenstellen, die Sie dann in ihr Heimatland mitnehmen können. Dies kann auch eine Grundlage für weitere thematische Arbeit und intensive Auseinandersetzung mit dem Thema Europa sein. Es wird die Projektseite des LINGUA 1 Projektes "JIP" genutzt, die sich allerdings im Augenblick im "Umbau" befindet und durch die Ergebnisse des Grundtvig Workshops 05/11 zusätzlich erweitert werden wird. Im Laufe der Workshoparbeit soll eine Broschüre erarbeitet werden, die dann entweder jeder TN mit nach Hause nehmen kann oder die nach einer kurzen Korrekturphase an alle TN geschickt wird.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Inspiration, not pollution! European countries produce too much waste. This has serious environmental implications. Moreover, valuable resources are simply thrown away. The objective of our workshop is an inspiring exchange of European Citizens about this issue. Strategies for avoiding waste and responsible consumption are discussed. Moreover, as one way of creative recycling, participants will learn to produce various products with their own hands. Participants will be able to apply these skills at home in their daily routine. Examples are: ENERGY GENERATED FROM TRASH Electronic waste is in fact a resource which can be used to build your own domestic appliances! One example is turning parts from reffridgerators and other old equipment into devices which produce wind or solar power. BUILDING AND RENOVATING – THE ECO-FRIENDLY WAY The production of waste can be avoided by using environmental friendly materials like untreated wood or clay. Participants are invited to build products like cutting boards, shelves, bird houses or simple chairs. An introduction into clay building is provided. Participants will learn how clay building techniques can be applied in their own home. The workshop takes place in a location which is surrounded by nature. The premises are built according to principles of sustainable architecture.

Einfälle statt Abfälle! In Europa wird zuviel Abfall produziert, der die Umwelt belastet. Viele Dinge, die noch genutzt werden können, landen auf dem Müll. In dem Workshop soll ein lebendiger und anregender Austausch der europäischen Bürger/innen zu diesem Thema stattfinden. Es werden verschiedene Alternativen für einen bewussten Umgang mit Ressourcen und Müllvermeidung im privaten Bereich ausgetauscht. Darüber hinaus proben die Teilnehmer/innen das kreative Recycling. Hierzu gehört die beispielhafte Produktion von Produkten, das Bauen und Ausprobieren, um konkrete und sinnliche Erfahrungen zu machen. Die erworbenen Fähigkeiten können im Alltagsleben und zu Hause eingesetzt werden. Beispiele sind: ENERGIE AUS SCHROTT Aus wertvollen Ressourcen, die als "Elektroschrott" entsorgt werden, kann man Haushaltsgegenstände bauen! Ein Beispiel ist die Verarbeitung von Materialien aus Kühlschränken und Metallprodukten zur Windkraftnutzung und Solarenergiegewinnung. Dies wird im Workshop ausprobiert. ÖKOLOGISCHES HEIMHANDWERKERN Müll kann dadurch vermieden werden, indem im Haushalt Materialien wie naturbelassenes Holz und Lehm verwendet werden. Die Teilnehmer bauen mit Holz einfache Produkte wie Schneidebrett, Regal, Vogelhäuschen oder einfache Stühle für den Hausgebrauch. Verschiedene Lehmbautechniken werden erläutert und praktisch an einer Wand ausprobiert. Auch wird gezeigt, welche Möglichkeiten es gibt, Lehm im Haus zu verwenden (Lehmwände, Lehmputz). Der Workshop findet auf einem von der Natur umgebenen Veranstaltungsort in der Lausitz statt, das nach ökologischen Gesichtspunkten errichtet wurde und als Umweltbildungszentrum ausgebaut wird.

In Achtsamkeit und Respekt wollen wir miteinander wahrnehmen und voneinander lernen. Unser Workshop bietet die Möglichkeit, mit den Mitteln des Ausdrucksmalens (freies intuitives Malen) mit ungenutzten Ressourcen in Kontakt zu kommen um so neue Ansätze, Ideen und Energien in unser Leben fließen zu lassen. Einfache Kreistänze, viel Bewegung in der Natur und Gruppengespräche bereichern das Angebot und unterstützen den Mal- und Gruppenprozess. Wieder zu Hause, sind alle guten Vorsätze schnell vergessen und der Sprachkurs rückt in weite Ferne. Grammatik und Vokabeltraining sind anstrengend und der Erfolg nur mäßig. Mit einer etwas anderen Art des Spracherwerbes beschäftigen wir uns in diesem Workshop. Dabei dient die Sprache vor allem als Mittel zur Verständigung und wird nicht zum Selbstzweck erlernt. Lernen im Ausprobieren – Fehler ausdrücklich erwünscht – und anhand von Inhalten, die interessieren und interessant sind. Informationen über Deutschland und ihr Heimatland, die Europäische Union und das Programm Grundtvig – zusammengetragen und publiziert in einer Workshop-Zeitung, die während der gemeinsamen Woche entsteht – "von uns und für uns". Am Ende des Workshops steht für Alle ein kultureller Zugewinn: Wissen über die EU und ihre Mitgliedsstaaten, kulturelle Besonderheiten einzelner Regionen, persönliche Kontakte. Dazu der Sprachgewinn – die Möglichkeit, sich mit anderen auszutauschen, Kontakte auch über Landesgrenzen hinweg zu finden und zu pflegen. Und vielleicht sehen Sie dann auch die eigene Heimat einmal aus einer ganz anderen Perspektive. Bitte mitbringen: Informationen aller Art aus der eigenen Region, z.B. Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Volksmusik ist eine lebendige Tradition und erlebt in den letzten Jahren in Bayern wie auch in vielen Teilen Europas ein gesteigertes Interesse in der breiten Öffentlichkeit, so auch in urbanen Ballungszentren. In der multikulturellen Gesellschaft erfahren die vielfältigsten Traditionen der Volksmusik einen Wandel in Inhalt und Ausdruck – die anonyme urbane Lebenswelt der Großstadt erfordert allerdings neue Organisationsformen und soziale Netzwerke für die Volksmusik. In diesem Workshop wollen wir aus den unterschiedlichen Perspektiven der europäischen Teilnehmerländer, den inhaltlichen und formalen Wandel der Volksmusik erforschen, diskutieren und dokumentieren. Wir beschäftigen uns mit Gemeinsamkeiten und Unterschieden der zeitgenössischen Volksmusik mit dem Ziel, mit einem gemeinsamen Auftritt neue Formen ihrer kulturellen Praxis für Augen und Ohren sichtbar zu machen. Ausgangspunkt der Betrachtung im urbanen Raum ist die multikulturelle Millionenstadt München, als Ballungszentrum der Region und als Landeshauptstadt des Freistaates Bayerns. München hat eine pulsierende experimentierfreudige „neue“ Volksmusikszene, die in der bayerischen Tradition verwurzelt ist und bietet deshalb einen idealen Nährboden für diesen kreativen Workshop. Gemeinsam werden Musikstücke erarbeitet, geprobt und im angemessenen Rahmen aufgeführt. Die eigentliche Workshopsprache, neben Deutsch, Englisch und Italienisch auf A2-Niveau des Europäischen Referenzrahmens, ist natürlich die Musik selbst!

Folk music stands for a living tradition of making music. In recent years, Bavaria, like many other European regions, has witnessed a new interest in those traditional forms of folklore music – and this not only in rural areas, but also in the hearts of the cities. In modern, multicultural societies the manifold traditions of folk music undergo a change in forms of content and expression – the impersonal living environment of major cities asks for new organisational forms and new ways of social networking within the folk music scene. Starting from the participants’ own perspectives (and their experiences with their own folklore traditions) the workshop wants to take a close look on these new trends in folk music – and on their possible influences on urban culture. However we are not going to be only researchers! We will deal with the common points and differences in contemporary folk music not only in theory: we will set up a band and (after a few rehearsals) we will present our findings to the public by performing a concert in one of Munich’s public places or cultural centres. The starting point is Munich, multicultural “village of a million”, economic drive of the region, and capital of Bavaria. Munich is home to a bustling and adventurous new folk music scene, which is deeply rooted in Bavarian tradition – the city therefore provides the ideal soil for this creative workshop. Collectively, we are going to merge our divergent folk tunes together and perform a hopefully new and fresh repertoire. Obviously, music will be our principal language! But for minor details we will try to converse in German, English and Italian.

La musica popolare è una tradizione viva! Da un paio d’anni la musica popolare avverte una crescita dell’attenzione pubblica in Baviera e in altre parti dell’Europa così come anche negli spazi urbani delle grandi città. Nella società multiculturale le faccettate tradizioni della musica popolare risentono dei cambiamenti rispetto a forma ed espressione. Le grandi città come ambiente di vita anonimo ed urbano esigono nuovi tipi di organizzazione e di reti sociali per la musica popolare. In questo workshop vogliamo, assumendo le prospettive dei partecipanti europei, individuare, discutere e documentare i cambiamenti che la musica popolare contemporanea sta subendo. Saremo alla ricerca di differenze e somiglianze nell’ambito contemporaneo della musica popolare per fare vedere e sentire in un spettacolo concepito insieme nuove forme della prassi culturale della musica popolare. Il punto di partenza per le nostre osservazioni è lo spazio multiculturale urbano della metropoli di Monaco che rappresenta un centro di alta concentrazione urbana e industriale per la regione ed è anche la capitale della Baviera. A Monaco esiste un ambiente sperimentale per musica popolare di nuovi tipi che però si radica nelle tradizioni bavaresi. Per questo motivo Monaco offre una situazione ideale per un workshop creativo. Insieme prepareremo e rappresenteremo i brani musicali in cornice adatta. La lingua principale durante questo workshop sarà la musica, anche se parleremo tedesco, italiano o inglese a livello A2.

You are welcome to our workshop even without hat – because you will get back home with a sample made by yourself after a one week's stay in the Bavarian hat city of Lindenberg. Included in your luggage there will also be numerous new impressions around this multifaceted subject of "hats". Fashionable aspects and handicraft, guided tours in museums and factories, cultural and industrial history and above all the exchange of ideas and views on this topic with like-minded people all over Europe are scheduled. Accompanying these days in Lindenberg with its various excursions a film and a homepage on this project will be created. Lindenberg's annual "Hat Day", on which occasion the German Hat Queen is elected, takes place every two years and it highlights the end of this workshop week. We are looking forward to anyone who is in the mood for hats and is keen to get to know the varied dimensions of the "hat" topic. Whether your interest in hats is of fashionable or technical nature, whether it's your private pleasure to wear hats or whether it's your hobby: we will give you our warmest welcome!

Erwachsene, die Interesse an Gemeinschaftsgärten und Gesundheitsbildung haben, Garten und Gesundheit verbinden wollen und sich gern im Freien aufhalten.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Wir lernen Möglichkeiten kennen, wie wir unsere geistigen und psychischen Kräfte in der Natur im Garten, in Gemeinschaft, Arbeit, Spiel, Ruhe und Bewegung regenerieren können. Wir wollen den einseitigen Belastungen in der Arbeitswelt entgegenwirken und erforschen alle unsere Sinne: Sehen, Hören, Riechen, Schmecken, Fühlen und Tasten und Körperbewegungen. Damit unterstützen wir den Abbau von Stress, stärken unsere Leistungsfähigkeit und emotionale Stabilität. Aufmerksamkeit, Sensibilität, Geschicklichkeit, räumliches Denken und Kooperation werden gefördert. Wir benutzen Übungen und Spiele aus der Umweltbildung und Gesundheitserziehung, die für alle Generationen geeignet sind und bekommen viele Anregungen für Jung und Alt in unseren Familien. Wir tauschen uns aus über die Heilwirkung von Pflanzen und die Verwendung von Gartenprodukten für eine gesunde Lebensweise. Wir lernen auf Exkursionen die Tradition der Gemeinschafts- und Interkulturellen Gärten in Berlin kennen. Dort gärtnern Menschen verschiedener Generationen und Nationen zusammen. Wir sammeln Ideen und Aktivitäten für Gemeinschaftsbildung in (Garten-) Projekten und tauschen uns aus über Erfahrungen mit Gemeinschaftsgärten. Gemeinsam mit den Familien des Interkulturellen Gartens in Berlin-Wedding feiern wir ein Fest. Volunteering and community work for me?

Target Group + Translation:

Frauen und Männer über 18 Jahre

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Dieses Seminar richtet sich an Menschen, die gerne ehrenamtlich tätig werden wollen, bis jetzt aber noch keinen Zugang gefunden haben. Es gibt viele Gründe, etwas für Andere zu tun. Aber was könnte es genau sein und was will ich überhaupt? In diesem Seminar wollen wir herausfinden, wo jede Teilnehmerin und jeder Teilnehmer steht: Was passt zu wem? Was passt zum Alltag? Über ein personenbezogenes, an den individuellen Zielen orientiertes Coaching suchen wir nach Antworten auf die persönlichen Wünsche und Sinnfragen. Mit kreativen Methoden werden die Kompetenzen entdeckt, Visionen entwickelt und im Austausch mit den Teilnehmerinnen und Teilnehmern konkret nach Möglichkeiten gesucht, sie im Alltag zu verwirklichen. In Gesprächen werden die unterschiedlichen Länder vorgestellt und ein Einblick vermittelt, wie Alltag, Gemeinschaft, Individuum, Unterstützung über Geben und Nehmen aussehen kann bzw. was individuell darunter verstanden wird. Die Vorstellung der unterschiedlichen Bereiche im Nachbarschaftshaus ermöglicht Jeder und Jedem, sich einen passenden Kurzeinsatz auszusuchen und sich auszuprobieren. Ein Eindruck von den Möglichkeiten kann gewonnen und mit den eigenen Schwerpunkten abgeglichen werden. Was am Ende im Mittelpunkt steht und im Gepäck mit nach Hause genommen wird, ist offen. Vielleicht ist es eine genaue Idee vom persönlichen Engagement oder einfach eine schöne Woche in der internationalen Gemeinschaft und der Wunsch, Ähnliches wieder zu erleben.

This workshop is addressed to people who want to volunteer their time, but who haven't found the "gateway" yet. There are many reasons to do something for others. But what could it be and what do I really want? In this workshop, we want to discover where the participants are standing. What fits whom? What fits the everyday life? Out of a personal coaching oriented on individual targets we will be looking for answers for the private requests and questions of meaning. With creative methods, competences will be discovered, visions developed and, in exchange with the other participants, concrete possibilities to make these visions a reality. In conversations the different countries will be introduced and people may see behind the curtain of everyday life, community, individuals, and support by giving and taking, respectively what it means personally. The presentation of the different categories of the Community Center will allow everybody to find compatible short-term commitments to sample something. The idea of possibilities can be checked up with personal aspects. What will be focused at the end and taken home with, we don't know. Perhaps it will be a clear idea of personal commitment or simply a nice week in an international community and the wish to repeat the experience. After your arrival on October 2nd 2011 and a warm welcome, we will take you to the accommodation, make you familiar with the neighbourhood and the public transport and have the chance to get to know each other and an overview of the next days. On our Day of German Unity, October 3rd, after having breakfast together and exchanging our experiences so far, introducing ourselves and our countries within the group which is also the after that we will find out about everybody's current situation by a world café "sense of life – what does it mean to me", we'll go on tour through the city. Next day our general manager will welcome you and introduce our Community Centre. To get an idea of our own personal development, we will use creative participatory methods of communication, such as "the hero in me" and talk about our different models of living together within smaller groups, to present our results after and discuss them all together at the end. After developing our personal visions and realizing our ideas, we visit our Community Centre's beekeeping-on-the-roof-project, exchanging our experiences and thoughts within small groups during the afternoon to end the day with a cultural programme all together in the evening. To get into the mood we will have a world café headlined "volunteering and community work for me?" and by an input about "volunteering at the Community Centre Nachbarschaftshaus Urbanstrasse e. V.", everybody gets the possibility according to the own preferences and personal visions, to choose the individual practice within the different departments of our organization, to visit and experience them. The last day, we will exchange the practice and the practicability in view of our everyday life at home, followed by evaluating the workshop, having time for feedback within small groups during the afternoon and saying goodbye with dance and buffet in our Community Centre in the evening. Farewell on October 8th 2011. Within daytime, at the beginning and end of each day, we will always have the chance for exchange, individually or within the group, as well as sufficient breaks in between as necessary.

Sprachenlernen anders – im Dialog mit Johann Sebastian Bach

Subject area: Methods to increase students motivation
Foreign language teaching and learning
Recognition of non-formal and informal learning

Working language(s): DE

Target Group + Translation:

Erwachsene, die einst erlerntes, jedoch nicht mehr anwendungsbereites Wissen in der Deutschen Sprache durch informelles und nonformales Sprachenlernen verbessern möchten und die sich für Kulturgeschichte (Musik/ Bach) interessieren.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Der Workshop bietet die Möglichkeit, einst gelerntes, jedoch nicht mehr anwendungsbereites, Wissen in der deutschen Sprache zu aktivieren und zu erweitern. Hierzu werden verschiedene Methoden des informellen Lernens genutzt. Am Beispiel der Biografie und den Wirkungsstätten des weltberühmten Komponisten Johann Sebastian Bachs werden die Themen Familie, Kindheit, Jugend, Arbeit und Musik behandelt. Exkursionen zu verschiedenen Wirkungsstätten in der Umgebung des Workshops dienen dazu, die Themenfelder selbst zu erschließen und das Erlernte im Sprachgebrauch zu trainieren. Die Exkursionen werden durch die Teilnehmenden selbst organisiert, was ihre Sprachkompetenz in Bezug auf das Thema „Reisen“ festigt. Die Teilnehmenden erkunden das Geburtshaus Bachs in Eisenach, Städte, Dörfer und Kirchen Thüringens, in denen Mitglieder der Bach-Familie – der Bache – geboren, getauft und getraut wurden und nicht zuletzt die Thomaskirche in Leipzig, wo Bach als Thomaskantor tätig war. Sie lernen dabei anhand von täglich gestellten Arbeitsaufgaben, die deutsche Sprache zu verstehen und in ihr zu kommunizieren. Der Lernfortschritt wird täglich in dokumentiert (z.B. in Mindmaps, Interviews, Präsentationen). Natürlich wird auch die Musik nicht zu kurz kommen: Wir lernen Instrumente kennen und besuchen ein Abendkonzert. Wir nehmen am Hausmusikabend einer Familie teil und frönen so einer Tradition, die in Erfurt wieder öffentlich praktiziert wird. Wir werden über die Verbindung von Bach und Luther den Bogen schlagen zu Lutherdekade.

The workshop offers the chance to re-activate and increase hidden German language skills – knowledge which had been acquired once but which isn't available well enough yet. That is going to be reached by informal learning. Taking advantage of the example of the biography of the world famous composer, Johann Sebastian Bach, we deal with the topics "Family, Childhood, Youth, Work environment, music a.s.o. Participant may discover sayings and words regarding the topics and practice it during Excursions to the various locations in the workshops surrounding. The excursions will be organized by the participants themselves. That way they increase their language skills regarding the topic "Journey". The Participants discover the house in Eisenach, where J.S. Bach is born. Excursion lead them to Cities, villages and churches of Thuringia where members of the huge Bach Family – so called Bache – had been born, baptized and married. Last but not least they will visit the Thomas church in Leipzig, where Bach acted as famous Thomaskantor. The participants increase their language skills by fulfilling daily tasks requiring understanding and communicating in German. The learning success will be documented daily (mind maps, interviews, presentations) Off course we involve music as well. We meet instruments and attend an evening concert. We may be invited in a so called “Home music” of a family and that way we take part in a re-newly upcoming tradition which is even publicly practiced.

The Future of European Cities – Examining Berlin / Die Zukunft der europäischen Stadt – am Beispiel Berlins

Subject area: Social integration / exclusion

Active citizenship

History and social science

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Our workshop invites inhabitants of European cities and urban regions to Berlin who are interested in comprehending the transformation of the urban environment they live in and who would like to exchange their view on these developments with participants from other European regions which experience comparable change. We especially invite people in insecure employment, elderly persons as well as people with migration backgrounds.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Taking the case of Berlin as a starting point, the workshop explains the mechanisms of urban change that are at work both in this city and in many other European urban areas. These changes are welcomed by some and deplored by others and they evoke discussions among city dwellers along questions such as: - How long is an upgrading of my city district an improvement of living conditions – and when does it turn into a process of unwanted replacement of not well-off people? - Who owns my city? And who should decide its future? The investors, whose main interest is in developing lucrative real estate? Or the people of the city, including poor people, artists and tenants? - Is an inner-city brownfield an offence to my eye – or rather an excellent opportunity for encouraging alternative visions of land use? - What kind of concepts are used in order to prevent social hotspots from getting run down? When it comes to new forms of urban development, Berlin can be understood as a “laboratory”. The city currently witnesses rapid structural and social transformation. At the same time it is the site of several projects that aim at resolving conflicts and social problems arising from this development. Through field trips, the workshop gives participants the opportunity to look closely into some of these projects as well as into the concerned neighborhoods and it helps them analyze the transformation of the city since the fall of the Berlin wall in 1989. At the same time, participants will prepare inputs on their experience with the transformation of urban space in their home regions. The workshop thus enables participants to understand processes of urban transformation in a broader European perspective, to identify similarities and differences between the cases discussed. We are looking forward to working with you on these subjects!

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Power relations are part of the daily life. They occur within family, on the job, among friends, in parliaments, at G20 summits as well as by the Wall street. People are acting as those who have power (rulers), who are establishing countervailing power (rebels), who are making a fool of power (jesters) – or who are silent. Power is often seen in a negative way. But power means also “making” something (in German: “Macht” – “machen”) or being able to do something (in French: “le pouvoir” – “pouvoir”). People are developing their possibilities and influence their relationships as well as the structures of the society. – In which way is power fascinating? Why is it often described as being a demonic one? What kind of competencies and potencial capacities do “people like you and me” have in order to get involved in groups and to influence developments? And in the opposite: In which way are people made by power? How is power and the “order of society” seen in the different European countries? What can I learn referring to the understanding of other cultures, what can I learn about my own context? Do women practise another kind of power than men – in the different cultures? How is it possible to combine power and responsibility: to “manage” power in a responsible way and to take responsibility which also means power? How could be strenghten confidence in order to make responsible power possible? How could self-confidence and inner freedom be underpined so that people can make their voices heard? We will talk about power (and democracy) within family, the field of work and labour, the activities of citizens, and the context of politics. The impressions we get at excursions and during interviews with different persons we will “reflect” in a creative way by the Sociodrama method. Sociodramas are supervised, improvised role games in which we put ourselves into other people's situations and try out how this role feels for us. We are then better able to experience how the world looks when "standing in someone else's shoes". Sociodrama helps to understand the dynamics of processes within the whole society and to develop own strategies to act.

Macht ereignet sich täglich: in der Familie, am Arbeitsplatz, unter Freunden, in Parlamenten, auf G20-Konferenzen oder seitens der Wall-Street. Menschen treten als solche auf, die Macht haben (rulers), Gegen-Macht herstellen (rebels), Macht ins Lächerliche ziehen (Jesters) – oder schweigen. Meist wird Macht negativ gesehen. Macht bedeutet aber auch „machen“, „können“. Menschen entfalten ihre Möglichkeiten und nehmen Einfluss – sei es in Beziehungen oder sei es auf die Strukturen von Gesellschaften. – Was fasziniert an der Macht, was ist das „Teuflische“ an ihr? Welche Fähigkeiten und Potenziale haben „Menschen wie du und ich“, um sich einzubringen und Entwicklungen mitzubestimmen? Wie werden wir umgekehrt in unserem Denken und unseren Einstellungen durch Machtverhältnisse geprägt? Wie wird Macht in den verschiedenen Ländern Europas interpretiert? Was lerne ich daraus für das Verständnis anderer Kulturen, was über meine eigene? Haben Frauen eine andere Haltung zur Macht als Männer? Wie kann es gelingen, Macht und Verantwortung in Einklang zu bringen – mit Macht verantwortlich umzugehen und Verantwortung, das heißt Macht zu übernehmen? Wie kann das dafür nötige Vertrauen gefördert werden? Wie können Selbstvertrauen und innere Freiheit gestärkt werden, damit wir unsere Stimme geltend machen? Wir werden uns mit Fragen von Macht (und Demokratie) in der Familie, dem Feld der Arbeit, des Engagements von Bürgern sowie dem Bereich der Politik beschäftigen. Die Eindrücke von den Exkursionen und Gesprächen werden auf kreative wie spielerische Weise mit der Methode des Soziodramas umgesetzt. Beim Soziodrama handelt es sich um angeleitete, improvisierte Rollenspiele, bei denen die Teilnehmenden sich in die Situation anderer versetzen und ausprobieren, wie sich diese Rolle für sie anfühlt. Zugleich können sie einen neuen Blick auf die gesamte Gesellschaft und ihre Verflechtungen entwickeln.

Generationsübergreifender Workshop für Erwachsene über 18 Jahre, die die Zusammenhänge von Farben, Kulturen, Traditionen und Wohlbefinden erkunden möchten, und dabei auch ihre Deutschkenntnisse verbessern wollen

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Farben sind überall auf der Welt allgegenwärtig und spielen eine bedeutende Rolle in unserem Leben. Sie sind Teil unserer eigenen Kultur und tief in unserem Unterbewusstsein verankert. Europa ist bunt, reich an farbigen Symbolen. Sind aber die Bedeutung und die Wahrnehmung der Farben in Europa überall gleich? Welche Rolle spielen Farben im gesellschaftlichen Leben eines Europäers und in seinem Alltag? Diesen Fragen wollen wir u.a. während des Workshops nachgehen. Wir beschäftigen uns mit der Bedeutung von Farben in verschiedenen europäischen Kulturen, besprechen Riten und Gebräuche, die mit bestimmten Farben verbunden sind, überlegen, welche sind die „Farben unseres Lebens“, erforschen, welche Farben unser Wohlbefinden, unsere Gefühle, unser Handeln, unseren Alltag... beeinflussen. Die Vielseitigkeit der Aktivitäten (drinnen und draußen) ist eine Garantie für einen spannenden Austausch zwischen Teilnehmern und Organisatoren. Die Seminarthemen: • Wahrnehmung der Farben • Farben in der europäischen Kultur • Farben, Traditionen, Feste in Europa • Farben und Gefühle • Farben, die unser Wohlbefinden fördern • Farben, Werbung und Geschmack • Farben in Bayern: kulturelle Bedeutung und Entdeckung einer Besonderheit der bayerischen Kunst „die Lüftlmalerei“ • Farben der Natur Die Themen werden mit vielfältigen Aktivitäten (drinnen und draußen) behandelt: Diskussionen, kreative Aktivitäten, Spiele, Entdeckungen, Besichtigungen, handwerkliches Schaffen, etc... Bei der Wahrnehmung von Farben sind Erfahrungen, die wir im Leben gemacht haben, dem Kulturkreis aus dem wir stammen und die Umgebung, in der wir uns gerade befinden, von großer Bedeutung.

Les couleurs sont omniprésentes partout dans le monde et jouent un rôle important dans notre vie. Elles font partie de notre culture et sont profondément ancrées dans notre subconscient. L'Europe est riche en couleurs et en symboles. Mais la façon de les percevoir et leur signification sont-elles les mêmes partout en Europe ? Quels rôles les couleurs jouent-elles dans la vie sociale d'un Européen et dans son quotidien ? Nous nous pencherons sur ces questions, sur la signification des couleurs dans diverses sociétés européennes, nous parlerons d'us et coutumes reliés à certaines couleurs, réfléchirons sur les « couleurs dans notre vie » et découvrirons quelles couleurs sont propices à notre bien-être, celles qui influencent nos sentiments, notre façon d’agir, notre vie quotidienne, etc... Les enseignants de la « Volkshochschule » (Centre d’Education continue pour Adultes) proposent une grande variété d’activités pratiques et autres (à l’intérieur et à l’extérieur) qui garantissent un atelier captivant et des échanges enrichissants pour tous. EN : Colors are ubiquitous all over the world and play an important role in our daily life. They are part of our culture and are deeply rooted in our mind. Europe is colorful and rich of colorful symbols. But are their perception and their signification the same in whole Europe? Which role do colors play in social and everyday life of a European? We are going to look at these questions, at the signification of colors in different European cultures, to speak about rules and traditions and to reflect upon how colors influence our well-being, our feelings, our doing, our everyday life, ... The team of the “Volkshochschule” (Adult Education Centre for LLL) proposes a large range of hands-on activities (inside and outside) to insure a life-enhancing and exciting workshop.

Die Teilnehmer/-innen jeden Alters sollen spielerisch die Möglichkeit bekommen, die Nutzung modernen neuen Medien (iPods, Smartphones, Tablet-PC usw.) zu erlernen. Dabei sollen die vielfältigen kommunikations- und informationstechnischen, sowie navigatorischen (GPS) aber auch kreativ-künstlerischen Optionen unter realen Bedingungen erlernt werden. Es werden urbane und grüne Räume der Stadt München entdeckt. Die Eindrücke während der Exkursion aufs Land nach Füssen mit seinen Königsschlösser Schloss Neuschwanstein und Hohenschwangau sollen ebenfalls im digitalen Reisetagebuch festgehalten werden. Weithin soll dann im Workshop erlernt werden, wie diese Daten ins Internet am Beispiel des Online-Reisetagebuches eingespeist werden können, mit dem Ziel, nachhaltig wirkende Kommunikations-, Austausch- und Datenstrukturen aufzubauen. Dabei wird vor allem sofort nutz- und handhabbares Wissen vermittelt im Gegensatz zu meist rein theoretischen Kursen ohne praktischen Bezug. Ziel ist es zudem, den Teilnehmern die Möglichkeit zu geben, aktiv am Kommunikationszeitalter teilzunehmen und Zugangsängste zu überwinden. Im Hinblick auf die europäischen sowie weltweiten Social Networks im Internet ist der europäische Austausch deutlich wirksamer als auf regionaler Ebene.

Target Group + Translation:

Erwachsene mit Medien- und / oder Politik-Interesse

All citizens who are interested in European politics and media or rather the acquisition of politics through media.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Der Workshop befasst sich mit den Europäischen Massenmedien. Es wird hinterfragt und erlernt, wie Europapolitik in den verschiedenen Nationalstaaten über Massenmedien vermittelt wird. Zielgruppe sind alle Bürgerinnen und Bürger, die sich für Europäische Politik und Medien bzw. die Politikvermittlung durch die Medien interessieren. Beantwortet werden folgende Fragen: Wie wird Europapolitik in den nationalen Massenmedien dargestellt und vermittelt? Nach welchen Kriterien werden europapolitische Nachrichten ausgewählt? Welche Rolle spielen die verschiedenen Medien in den verschiedenen Ländern? Berlin und die deutsche Medienlandschaft wird als Hauptbeispiel und vor allem auch praktisch vorgestellt. Geplant sind neben interaktiven Workshop-Sessions verschiedene Redaktions- und Institutionsbesuche. Die Besuche finden als Bestandteil des Workshops oder auch in lockerer Atmosphäre als Rahmenprogramm - wie z. B. abends, als Kamingespräch statt. Neben den verschiedenen Medienbereichen werden auch die Medien und Landesvertretungen der teilnehmenden Länder einbezogen. Die fünf Tage des Workshops gliedern sich neben Tag 1 zum Kennenlernen und Tag 5 der Abschlussveranstaltung in die drei Hauptmedien: Print, Funk & Fernsehen sowie Online auf. Jedem Medium wird ein kompletter Workshop-Tag gewidmet an dem zum einen Deutschland und dann auch die anderen Länder behandelt werden. Diesbezüglich werden konkrete Anwendungen / Best Practice Beispiele der einzelnen Länder vorgestellt, analysiert und nach Adaptierfähigkeit betrachtet. Die Teilnehmenden sollten zudem die Medienlandschaft ihres eigenen Landes vorstellen und vergleichend bewerten.

The workshop deals with the topic of European mass media. It questions and acquires how European politics get communicated with mass media in the different federal states. The target group includes all citizens who are interested in European politics and media or rather the acquisition of politics through media. The workshop deals with following questions: How are European politics displayed and communicated through mass media? According to which criteria are European news selected? Which roles are playing the different European states? Berlin and the German media landscape will be the main example for theoretical lessons and practical introduction. Next to interactive workshop session, we are planning different visits of editorial offices and institutions. These visits are part of the workshop program and can also take place in a casual atmosphere as framework program – for example in the evening as informal discussion. Furthermore to the involvement of the German media branch we will also include the media- and representation offices of the participating states. The 5 days of the workshop are arranged, next to day 1 for introduction and get to know each other and day 5 for the public closing event, according to the three main media branches: Print, Radio and Television, Agency and Online. Every branch is examined on its own workshop day – Germany and the participating states will be covered. Referring to this, there will be introductions and analyses of concrete applications / best practice examples of every participating state. We want to find out which practices are best and adaptable. The attendants are not only introducing their media landscape and practices but should make a comparative validation.

Kinetic Creativity - moving groups with creative potential

Subject area: Development of training courses
European citizenship and European dimension
Methods to increase students motivation

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Adult learners who are interested in improving social and collaborative skills, enhancing their personal creativity and enacting it within a group. In particular, individuals who wish to work collectively on globally significant issues.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

As a participant in the "Kinetic Creativity – Moving Groups with Creative Potential" you will be actively exploring creativity within yourself as an individual and within groups, and how to develop the conditions under which creativity can act as a catalyst for innovative problem solving (in collaborations, stressful environments or under pressure). Methods and tools obtained through this workshop can be used in both personal and professional contexts, in particular, within intercultural contexts and within groups where active participation is low. For those involved in extremely collaborative projects internationally within Europe, Kinetic Creativity will provide many indispensable tools and methods to facilitate your work - including how to work with different language and communication abilities, and how to function with culturally different perspectives on professional collaboration - which is absolutely necessary in the context of the European Union. The workshop is based on the following concepts: -failure is something positive that can be used as a tool for learning -creativity is a product of making mistakes and can be learned (and practised) -creativity is enhanced through diversity of perceptions, individually or within a group -creativity is a prerequisite for innovative and sustainable group processes -sustainable, positive collaborations are important for changing "systems" like families, communities, and even Europe. Most importantly, you will be encouraged throughout the workshop to engage on issues you find personally stimulating. The workshop will allow you to test and develop your skills in creative thinking and creative problem solving through a series of reflections, visualizations, exercises, games and discussions. This workshop is very interactive and practice oriented, so participants are invited to bring ideas and inspirations with them, as well as any publications or books to include in our "library" for all participants. Please note -though the language of the workshop is English, Kinetic Creativity uses methods that work with and through language barriers. Participants lacking perfect English skills are most welcome to apply.

Robotik und Raketenbau – Naturwissenschaften für Alle! Robotics and rocket-construction – natural sciences for everybody!

Subject area: New technologies, ICT
Methods to increase students motivation
Natural Sciences

Working language(s): DE

Target Group + Translation:

Erwachsene Lernende

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Für viele Menschen sind die Naturwissenschaften Physik, Chemie, Biologie, Mathematik und Informatik leider unverständlich und fremd. Häufig wird durch eine zu theoretische Erklärungsweise die kindliche Neugier an diesen Bereichen unterdrückt. Naturwissenschaften können aber Spaß machen und faszinieren – spielerisch können quasi nebenher auch komplizierte Sachverhalte verstanden und auf alltägliche Anwendungen übertragen werden. In diesem Workshop wollen wir uns den Themen Robotik und Raketenbau nähern – und dies mithilfe praktischer Methoden. Dazu arbeiten wir mit kompetenten Partnern zusammen: Zwei Referentinnen der Universität Bremen werden mit uns während drei Tagen Miniroboter bauen und programmieren. Ebenso ist ein Besuch einer Automobilfabrik in Ingolstadt geplant, um moderne Industrieroboter in Aktion zu sehen. Am Standort Lampoldshausen des Deutschen Zentrums für Luft- und Raumfahrttechnik (DLR) wird ein DLR_SCHOOL_Lab betrieben, in dem die aktuellen Forschungen erlebbar gemacht sowie die Faszination an wissenschaftlicher und technischer Arbeit der Luft- und Raumfahrt vermittelt werden. Zusammen mit dem Leiter des Labors werden wir Miniraketen und Microlauncher konstruieren und steigen lassen. Das große Vorbild der interkulturellen Zusammenarbeit, die Rakete „Ariane“ können wir so in diesem Workshop im Kleinen nachvollziehen. Gemeinsam werten wir aus, wie sich das Erlernte auf das individuelle Umfeld der Teilnehmenden übertragen lässt. Selbstverständlich ist ein Rahmenprogramm geplant, das auf die Besonderheiten unserer interkulturellen Gruppe Rücksicht nimmt. Verschiedene Übungen der Gruppen- und interkulturellen Pädagogik, der Sprachanimation sowie ein gutes Verhältnis von Arbeitsphasen und informellen Momenten runden das Programm ab.

For many people natural sciences such as physics, chemistry, biology, mathematics and informatics are unfortunately incomprehensible and still a strange topic. Quite often the childlike curiosity for this area is suppressed by explanations which are too theoretical. But of course it is possible that natural sciences can be fun and, what is more, can fascinate people. If complicated facts are explained in a playful way they can be quite easily understood and transferred to everyday use. During this workshop we would like to familiarize our participants with two topics: robotics and rocket-construction – and we will do it with practical methods. In order to archive our aims we will work together with competent partners: Two representatives from the University of Bremen will construct with us mini-robots during these three days and program them. Furthermore we plan to visit a motor-car factory in Ingolstadt where we will see some modern industrial robots in action. In Lampoldshausen, German Aerospace Center (Deutsches Zentrum für Luft- und Raumfahrttechnik, DLR) we will visit the DLR_SCHOOL_Lab in where the participants will have the chance to experience some of the current researches in an interactive way and we are sure that this experience will awake the participants' fascination for technical and scientific works in aerospace. Together with the head of the laboratory we will construct mini-rockets and micro-launchers and let them take off. This way we will be perfectly able to understand and reconstruct the shining example of intercultural cooperation, the rocket "Ariane". We will also evaluate and discuss together how to transfer all the new knowledge into the everyday lives of the participants. Naturally we have also taken into consideration that we will be an intercultural group and because of that we have planned a supporting agenda. Different tasks including elements of group and intercultural pedagogy, language animation as well as generating a good feeling both during the work and informal moments will complete the workshop agenda.

Women – designs for life after fifty. Treasure hunt instead of searching for errors.

Subject area: Intergenerational learning / learning in later life / senior citizens
Intercultural education
Health education

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

This workshop addresses women in the second phase of life (from fifty years onward). We want to address women who are looking for means to shape their age in a healthy, committed, and responsible way and who are interested in entering into an intercultural exchange concerning the topic of “getting older in Europe”. We want to reach out for women who are looking for solutions for crises and limitations which are unavoidable when getting older.

Der Workshop richtet sich an Frauen in der zweiten Lebensphase (ab 50 Jahren). - Wir wollen Frauen ansprechen, die Wege suchen, gesund, engagiert und selbstverantwortlich ihr Alter zu gestalten und Interesse haben, in einen interkulturellen Austausch zum Thema "Älterwerden in Europa" zu treten. - Wir wollen Frauen ansprechen, die für alterunausweichliche Krisen und Begrenzungen Lösungswege suchen.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

In this workshop we will bring again to our awareness the competences, potentials, and coping strategies gained in our lives so far in order to use them fruitfully in the “adventure of getting older”. An encouraging look at “getting older” creates new life concepts as e.g. mutual strength and social relevance. The intercultural exchange will enormously enlarge the multiplicity of life concepts in aging. Women in Europe have a very high expectancy of life and so far very few usable role models for this long phase of life after 50. We want to stay healthy and active for a long time and live in social networks – how can this be done? It is common practice to focus on complaints and limitations, salutogenesis in contrast looks at resources and potentials. For this endeavour we will take inspiration from the theory of salutogenesis which poses the question what keeps us healthy in contrast to the factors which make us sick. Thus in this exchange we will stress the “treasures” which we have gathered in our lives. We will approach this topic in turning in the first place to historical biographies of women in Weimar which can serve as models. After having looked at the salutogenic aspects of historical biographies of women, we will turn to our own life histories. Employing creative methods as e.g. painting, theatre without words, working with inner images and so forth we will try to overcome language barriers in a rather personal exchange and to find out the personal abilities and potentials which at times are more recognizable in images and stories. By this procedure their relevance for a vision of what aging may be in the future will become evident.

Wir werden uns in diesem Workshop die bisher im Leben erworbenen Kompetenzen, Potentiale und Bewältigungsstrategien wieder bewusst machen, um diese für das "Abenteuer des Älterwerdens" zu nutzen. Ein ermutigender Blick auf "das Älterwerden" gibt neue persönliche Lebenskonzepte, wie gegenseitige Stärkung und gesellschaftliche Relevanz. Der interkulturelle Austausch wird die Vielfalt von Lebenskonzepten im Alter enorm erweitern. Frauen in Europa haben eine sehr hohe Lebenserwartung und bisher kaum brauchbare Rollenbilder für diese lange Phase des Lebens ab 50. Wir wollen lange gesund und aktiv sein und in sozialen Zusammenhängen leben - wie ist dies machbar? Die gängige Praxis ist, den Fokus auf Beschwerden und Reduzierungen zu richten; im Gegensatz dazu blickt die Salutogenese auf Ressourcen und Potentiale. Für diese Arbeit lassen wir uns anregen von der Theorie der Salutogenese, die die Frage nach dem stellt, was uns gesund erhält, im Unterschied zu der Frage nach den krank machenden Faktoren. So werden wir in diesem Austausch "die Schätze" betonen, die wir in unserem Leben angesammelt haben. Nachdem wir uns mit den salutogenen Aspekten der historischen Frauenbiographien aus Weimar beschäftigt haben, wenden wir uns unseren eigenen Lebensgeschichten zu. Mit kreativen Methoden wie Malen, Theater ohne Worte, Arbeit mit inneren Bildern usw. werden wir versuchen, Sprachbarrieren in dem doch eher persönlichen Austausch zu überwinden und die manchmal mehr in Bildern oder Geschichten erkennbaren persönlichen Fähigkeiten und Potentiale zu erarbeiten. Dabei wird ihre Relevanz für eine Zukunftsvision des Älterwerdens sichtbar werden.

You can give a hand to our living planet. Transition made easy

Subject area: Active citizenship

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Der Workshop spricht Menschen an, die sich für Umweltschutz und soziale Gerechtigkeit interessieren und sich aktiv an der Gestaltung der Gesellschaft in der sie leben beteiligen wollen.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Damit sich Menschen angesichts der ökologischen Krise für das Leben, insbesondere für den Erhalt eines gesunden Lebensumfelds engagieren, braucht es nicht viel: vor allem Wahrnehmung, Anstöße und Ermutigung. Wissen um die Zustände und (Hinter-) Gründe, Beobachtung aus dem eigenen Lebensumfeld und Ideen für ein Engagement sind meist reichlich vorhanden. Dieser Workshop dient dazu, das Vorhandene zusammenzutragen, zu verknüpfen und mit wenigen neuen Methoden daraus erreichbare Ziele zu setzen. Gegenseitige Unterstützung in der Gruppe ist dafür essentiell. Die Teilnehmenden erlernen konkrete Werkzeuge der Gruppenarbeit, Veranstaltungsorganisation und die Verknüpfung mit ökologischen Themen. Durch aktiv gestaltete Lernprozesse werden, gemeinsam mit den Lernenden Konzepte entwickelt, wie sie selbst in ihren Lebensräumen tätig werden und sich europäisch vernetzen können. Das Lernkonzept des Workshops orientiert sich an den Methoden der Tiefen Ökologie und von Transition Town. Der Workshop beinhaltet folgende Themen und Aktivitäten: - Erlernen von Techniken zur Gruppenkommunikation und Entscheidungsfindung wie World Cafe, Open Space, Fishbowl und andere - Erlernen und erleben von Techniken, um aus den neuen Informationen und den eigenen Erfahrungen eine Vision für ökologische und gesellschaftliche Themen zu entwickeln. - Individuelles Lernen und Gruppenarbeit zu Themen wie : Permakultur, Nachhaltiger Gartenbau, lokale Energieversorgung, Re-Lokalisierung, Peak Oil, Artensterben und Artenschutz, Globalisierung - Aktionen und Spiele in der Natur - Kreativ-künstlerisches Arbeiten zur Unterstützung des Lernprozesses - Exkursion zu einer ökologisch ausgerichteten Bürgerinitiative und Erfahrungsaustausch mit den dort Aktiven: Transition Town Bielefeld - Austausch und Vergleich der unterschiedlichen Erfahrungen, basierend auf den jeweiligen Gegebenheiten in den unterschiedlichen europäischen Heimatländern - Entwicklung von individuellen Konzepten zur Umsetzung eigener ökologischer Projektideen im lokalen Umfeld.

For us humans to engage on behalf of live itself, especially to protect our living environment, doesn't need much: Inner & outer awareness, an initiating impulse and a sense of strong self-empowerment. There is probably no lack of knowing about the conditions, the reasons and the observations in your own environment as to have already an impulse to turn this knowledge into meaningful, positive & creative action in your own surroundings / area. Our workshop week will help us to bring together what is already there, to synthesise and to become equipped with the appropriate inner & outer tools; as to form that impulse into achievable goals and actions. Mutual support within our multi-national European group will be an essential; as well as sharing our experiences and cultural diversity in an apposite and flexible way. The participants will e.g. learn specific tools for working in groups and for setting up public events around ecological issues. In a process of active learning, participants will develop their own concepts for actions they want to take in their natural and social environment. The concept of the workshop, which is inspired by Deep Ecology Work ("Work that reconnects") and by the "Transition (Town) Movement", also emphasises the European dimension. Among the content and activities of the workshop are: - Getting to know and experiencing first hand techniques of group communication and decision making such as World Café, Open Space, Fishbowl etc. - How to start an initiative, group dynamics, organizing working groups etc. Strongly drawing on the Transition Initiatives model & their experiences - Experiencing and learning about methods how to extract your personal, group and regional vision from mental input and your own experiences related to ecological and social issues. With many elements from "Deep ecology" & inner Transition - Individual studies and group studies around issues such as: Permaculture, sustainable gardening, local energy supply, re-localization, peak-oil & peak-everything, protection and extinction of species, related aspects of globalization - Activities and games in nature - Creative work and artwork to advance your learning process - Field trip to visit an ecology citizens' action group "Transition Town Bielefeld", exploring their Permaculture garden project & sharing of experiences about their real-life TT Bielefeld Initiative & their initiative start-and-nurture experiences with members of Transition Town Bielefeld. - Shared learning sessions, based on your different experiences from your different European countries - Developing an individual concept for bringing the workshop experience into practice in the participants local environment

METROPOLIS – Urban Learning

Subject area: Pedagogy and didactics
Media and communication
Recognition of non-formal and informal learning

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

DE: Der Workshop spricht Erwachsene allen Alters - und mit allen körperlichen Voraussetzungen an, die davon träumen, mit "Metropolis" inmitten von Parks und Häuserschluchten zu lernen, zu improvisieren, Akzente im urbanen Umfeld zu setzen und neue Wege zu gehen. Zudem vor allem Menschen, die auf Grund ihrer Biographie, Herkunft finanzieller Ausstattung und Geschichte bisher schlechten Zugang zu Bildungsprogrammen hatten.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

METROPOLIS is active exploration and urban learning between parks and street canyons: Participants can experience the City of Wiesbaden actively and inter-culturally. The urban environment offers a wide variety of possibilities to explore and activities to choose from and provides options for personality development. By means of educational play, theatrical pedagogy and experiential education, an early concept of urban learning is presented and executed. Soft skills, such as capacity for teamwork, decision-making ability, communication and empathy are to be made experience able for the participants and can be exercised in the learning section „City“. The learners are motivated to act actively, interactively and communicatively. The activities should challenge the participants and allow for a change in perspective. The main principle involves the consolidation and deepening of the events and experiences by subsequent reflection. Over time applications of the different methods are to be highlighted and compared. Urban Learning is action-oriented and finds multiple uses in institutions of non-formal education. The participants have the opportunity to help shape the design of the course in the beginning phase. Emphasis can be placed on experiential education-oriented activities, on multimedia-based installations or on the creation of an animated film with urban objects. Experiences, creativity, imagination, curiosity and joy will be set free by the exploration of the city. Experiential opportunities and activities in the city are varied and the character-building possibilities are to be easy and effective.

METROPOLIS ist aktive Stadterkundung und urbanes Lernen zwischen Parks und Häuserschluchten: Die Teilnehmer können die City von Wiesbaden aktiv und interkulturell erleben. Die Erlebnismöglichkeiten und Aktionsvarianten im urbanen Umfeld sind vielfältig und bieten Möglichkeiten zur Persönlichkeitsbildung. Mit Mitteln der Spiel-, Theater-, und Erlebnispädagogik wird ein erstes Konzept von urbanem Lernen vorgestellt und durchgeführt. Für die Teilnehmer sollen Softskills, wie Teamfähigkeit, Entscheidungsfähigkeit, Kommunikation und Empathie erlebbar gemacht werden. Denn diese fungieren als Schlüsselqualifikationen und können im Lernfeld „Stadt“ trainiert werden. Die Lernenden werden dabei zum aktiven, interaktiven und kommunikativen Handeln motiviert. Die Aktionen sollen bei den Teilnehmern einen Perspektivenwechsel ermöglichen und sie herausfordern. Das zentrale Prinzip ist es, die Erlebnisse und die Erfahrungen, die in den Aktionen gemacht werden, durch anschließende Reflexion zu vertiefen und zu verankern. Dabei sollen im weiteren Verlauf Einsatzmöglichkeiten der verschiedenen Methoden beleuchtet und verglichen werden. Urbanes Lernen ist handlungsorientiert und findet vielfache Verwendung bei Einrichtungen der nicht-formalen Bildung. Die Teilnehmenden bekommen in der Anfangsphase des Workshops die Möglichkeit das Kursdesign mit zu gestalten. Schwerpunkte können gelegt werden bei z.B. erlebnispädagogisch orientierten Aktionen, bei multimedialen Rauminstallationen oder bei der Erstellung eines Animationsfilm mit urbanen Objekten. Erlebnisse, Kreativität, Phantasie, Neugierde und Freude werden bei der Stadterkundung freigesetzt. Die Erlebnismöglichkeiten und Aktionsvarianten sind in der Stadt vielfältig und die Möglichkeiten zur Persönlichkeitsbildung sollen leicht und effektiv wahrgenommen werden.

Young at heart: sing, move, feel and heal. An international workshop for people from all over Europe

Subject area: Health education

Recognition of non-formal and informal learning

Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

This workshop is directed to adult people who want to come in contact with themselves, their own voice, their body, their passion and with other people from all over Europe. You should be curious and open to learn more about yourselves by singing and bodywork, by meditations and creative methods. You don't need to have any singing skills or other competencies. The workshop is mainly addressed to people who have little experiences with non-formal education and who have some disadvantages in approaching trainings (based on migration, low educational, age or economical background, rural area etc.). Because of the diversity in the workshop men are especially invited to join the workshop. We also ask elderly people to feel warmly welcome to participate.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

If you join this workshop, you will experience a process of getting more alive, to be in contact with your heart, your feelings, your body and your voice. The workshop will guide you through a personal process to find out more about fulfillment in your life, about being healthy by relaxation, positive body-feeling and the expression of your emotions. As main tools of this process we will be singing together and doing bodywork. Furthermore we offer meditation, creative methods like painting and writing as well as discussions and group-work. On the first day you get to know the other participants and make connection within the group. You make first experiences with your voice and your body, start singing together and coming in contact with your own intention which brought you to the workshop. On the second day you can reflect about your own life. On different levels you go further into the question where you come from and where you will go to (local, emotional, spiritual, etc.). You connect with the present moment and you can experience more and more pleasure by singing and moving. The third day is meant to experience vividness and energy: you will reflect about your own personal borders (Yes and No) in actual life. You will experience to express your Yes and your No in the body-work and find out where the energy is flowing and how it makes you feel alive. Day number four will deal with abundance. You visualize your life in fulfillment. Based on this you will create a ritual to send your intention and wishes to the universe. Questions about spirituality and life-tasks may come up and get space. On the last day you will have time to reflect the process of the workshop and to draw your own conclusions about your daily life. You will get own ideas how to transfer the insights of the workshop and how to live more healthy. At the end we will evaluation the workshop and take time to say good bye.

Women alive: with energy and consciousness. An international workshop for women from all over Europe

Subject area: Gender issues, equal opportunities
Health education
Methods to increase students motivation

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

This workshop is created for women from different countries who want to develop their consciousness about themselves and who want to feel their own power and vividness. The participants should be willing to learn with bodywork and meditations and also with creativity and analytic methods. The workshop is mainly addressed to women who have little access to adult education because of their disadvantages (based on migration, low educational or economical background, rural area). It is also open for women from areas/countries where body-oriented and holistic ways of learning are underdeveloped until now (e.g. Romania, Turkey, Latvia, Bulgaria).

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

If you join this workshop, you will experience a process of self-reflexion and growth of self-esteem. You will get more and more abilities to express your own feelings, needs and desires. To support you in this process during the workshop we will use bodywork and other holistic tools like meditation, creativity, roleplaying and dance/movement. On the first day you will make contact with the other participants and with your own body. You experience yourself, get more grounding and learn to open yourselves towards your present feelings (like fear, pleasure, aggression, sadness...). The second day you will reflect your life-situation and get in an exchange with the other women. You share your own knowledge about your life with women from other countries and by this you get really in touch with European learning. The third day will be fully used to activate your energy. Bodywork will help you to connect with your body and make you feel your own possibilities and boundaries. You may start feeling more of your strength and power - by all kind of physical games and possibilities to act out feelings, by dancing and moving. This brings you more in contact with your own womanhood. The diversity among all the women will open up more and more freedom in finding your own way about how to be a woman. Day number four brings the participants in contact with their own womanhood. The bodywork helps them to connect with their own female body. They reflect female role models - especially their mothers. The diversity among the participants will open up more and more freedom in finding the own perspective about how to be a women. On the last day the main question will be how to transfer your own power and vividness in your daily life and how to transfer the experiences and the risen consciousness in the normal life. Therefor we will celebrate a ritual to experience confirmation in your process of getting free. There will be space to evaluate the workshop and to celebrate our community.

Maintaining our health through sustainable food systems

Subject area: Health education
Environment / sustainable development
Consumer education

Working language(s): DE

Target Group + Translation:

Der Workshop richtet sich an Menschen aus Italien, Dänemark der Schweiz und Deutschland, die daran interessiert sind, ihre Ernährungsgewohnheiten zu hinterfragen und sich in einen Austausch über Hintergründe und Alternativen in der Lebensmittelproduktion begeben wollen. Wir möchten interkulturelles, sowie generationsübergreifendes (Voneinander-) Lernen fördern und hoffen auf eine Gruppe, die so vielfältig wie möglich ist bezüglich ihrer kulturellen und sozialen Hintergründe, ihres Alters sowie ihrer Lebens- und Essgewohnheiten.

The workshop is addressed to people from Italy, Denmark, Switzerland and Germany, who are interested in reflecting their habits of eating. We will start an exchange about the theoretical background of food production as well as our own role in maintaining it and possible alternatives. We would like to initiate intercultural and cross-generational learning and hope to invite a group that is as diverse as possible regarding their social and cultural backgrounds, their ages and their living and eating habits.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Die Beschäftigung mit Ernährung und ihrer Auswirkung auf die Gesundheit (sowohl von KonsumentInnen, wie auch ProduzentInnen) bildet die Grundlage des Workshops. Wir wollen uns auf die Spurensuche begeben. Wir möchten voneinander lernen in Bezug auf Ernährungswissen und kulturelle Koch- und Essgewohnheiten. Zu diesem Zweck wird der Anfang des Workshops vom Kennenlernen, dem miteinander Kochen und Essen geprägt sein. Uns werden zudem Lebensmittelskandale, Zusatzstoffe, Gentechnik, Produktionsbedingen in der EU und Grundlagen der ökologischen Landwirtschaft beschäftigen. Ausgestattet mit diesem Wissen begeben wir uns in Kontakt mit „ExpertInnen“ aus Berlin und dem Berliner Umland. Der Besuch Ökologischer und solidarisch organisierter Bauernhöfe steht dabei ebenso auf dem Programm, wie ein Austausch mit der Organisation „foodwatch“ und eine Exkursion mit einem erfahrenen Heilkräuterspezialisten. Einen praktischen Umgang mit Gartenarbeit und Ernte bietet ein „offener Garten“ direkt am Seminarort, in welchem Obst, Gemüse und Kräuter biologisch angebaut werden. Die kulinarischen Rezepte werden, zusammen mit den Ergebnissen der theoretischen Arbeit, auf CD-Rom festgehalten und können somit die Teilnehmenden auch an ihren Heimatorten weiter inspirieren. Zudem wird es während der Workshopwoche genug Raum für unsere individuellen Erfahrungen geben und auch einen Tag zur freien Gestaltung.

The foundation of the workshop is to learn about diet and nutrition and their effects on both the health of the consumers and producers. Theoretical and practical learning will come together throughout the course. To introduce one another the workshop will begin with a cooking activity. Everybody will create a specialty from their home country and share about their cultural cooking and eating habits. After this we will focus on a theoretical exploration of food related social topics (i.e. food scandals, additives, Genetic Engineering, factors of production within the EU, basic principles of organic farming). Equipped with this knowledge we will start an exchange with “experts“ from Berlin and the surrounding countryside. The program includes a visit to an organic farm and a Community Supported Agriculture project as well as a meeting with the NGO “foodwatch“ and a field trip with a medicinal herb specialist. You will also learn practical skills in the community garden that belongs to the KuBiZ-center and is used for organic cultivation of fruits, vegetables and herbs. The culinary recipes (like all other outcomes from the workshop) will be recorded on a CD and continue to inspire you back home. Additionally there will be sufficient space during the week for the exchange of individual experience and knowledge about food.

Successful start to kindergarten and school

Subject area: Family / parent education
Health education
Volunteering

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

The workshop is designed for parents, legal guardians and grand parents with risk of social exclusion. The workshop focuses on the transition of children from family to kindergarten and school. Not only children but also parents need support in this situation.

Der Workshop richtet sich an Eltern, Erziehungsberechtigte und Großeltern mit besonderem Fokus auf sozio-ökonomisch Benachteiligte.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

The workshop held in English and German is designed that way that all participants will have time to get to know each other well enough to be able to reflect on pedagogic questions free of fear. Then the topic "successful start in kindergarten and school" will be introduced to the group. During the workshop the participants will tackle the question "which rights and obligation do parents have in Europe in respect to education and training of their children?", "which attitude do I have towards my child and towards the teachers?" (Methods: group work, metaplaning, role play, creative expression). The next step will be a lecture about the elements of successful transitions. The participants cooperate in the development of activities for the support of their children in transition to a formal educational institution and for the support of the identity building of the child. Then the participants will reflect on their own expectations and wishes as well as the children's ones (Method: group work reading a children book about starting school and discussing it). The next topic will be cooperation and communication between parents and teachers (method: study visit at a German house of education). During this visit the question of voluntary parent participation will be tackled. A session on healthy balanced diet for kindergarten children and pupils will terminate the workshop (Method: e. g. plays on different elements of nutrition).

Der Kurs thematisiert die Übergänge im Leben der Kinder von der Familie in den Kindergarten und später in die Schule. Nicht nur die Kinder, sondern auch die Eltern benötigen Unterstützung, so dass sie den Kindern aktiv während der Übergänge beistehen können. Für diese Aufgabe und auch für die Zusammenarbeit zwischen Familien, Kindergärten und Schulen besteht ein Bedarf an informierten Eltern. Der Workshop in englischer und deutscher Sprache wird so gestaltet sein, dass sich die Teilnehmenden gegenseitig gut kennenlernen und über die Herkunftsländer mehr erfahren. Danach wird in die Thematik "Erfolgreicher Start in Kita und Schule" eingeführt. Im Workshop wird dann den Fragen nachgegangen "Welche Erfahrungen haben die teilnehmenden Eltern/Großeltern aus den verschiedenen Ländern mit Übergängen gemacht?", "Welche Rechte und Pflichten haben Eltern in Europa in Bezug auf die Erziehung und Bildung ihrer Kinder?", "Welche Einstellung habe ich zu meinem Kind und welche zu seinen Erziehern / Lehrern?". Die Teilnehmenden werden Kinderbücher aus ihren Ländern mitbringen, die sich mit dem Thema Schule beschäftigen, um voneinander zu lernen. In einem Impulsreferat werden die Elemente des erfolgreichen Übergangs vorgestellt. Die Teilnehmenden entwickeln gemeinsam Aktivitäten, um die Kinder beim Übergang in die Schule zu unterstützen. Auch hierbei geht es darum, die eigenen Erwartungen und Wünsche sowie die des Kindes zu reflektieren. Ein weiterer Programmpunkt wird die Zusammenarbeit zwischen Eltern und Lehrern sein, die anhand von Beispielen aus den verschiedenen Ländern bearbeitet wird. Hierbei wird auch die Frage des freiwilligen Engagements der Eltern behandelt. Schließlich werden in einer Workshopeinheit noch Ernährungsfragen beim Übergang in Kita und Schule behandelt.

All adult learners with interest in the transitions from dictatorship to democracy in the late 80ies are invited. Preference will be given to applicants with a strong motivation letter and a convincing outline of an individual follow-up activity. This activity should make use of the workshop results in the participants' individual community at home.

All adult learners with interest in the political transitions in the late 80ies are invited. Participants are expected to have a good oral command of English. Reading and writing skills are of secondary importance. The accommodation and workshop rooms are wheelchair accessible.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

The first workshop phase (3 days) offers input, discussion and reflection on the topic and asks for the participants' own experiences and knowledge of the political transitions. It consists of participants' presentations, field trips, and discussions with eyewitnesses and activists. In the second phase (2 days) the group will play and evaluate a simulation reflecting several aspects of the transitions. To setup of this regime change simulation is a fictitious country, to allow abstraction from national narratives and concentration on basic elements and interest groups.

English: In the workshop "EUTRA – European transitions from dictatorship to democracy in the late 1980ies and their relevance for Europe today" a group of 12-15 Europeans with different backgrounds and age will learn about the different national or regional transition processes, share personal histories, reflect on eyewitnesses experiences and discuss consequences for Europe today. Based on this exchange of personal knowledge and experience, we will play, test and evaluate a regime change simulation as an educational tool to engage other Europeans with these issues. The workshop starts by asking for the participants' own experiences and/or knowledge of the political transitions in each country. You are also welcome to share and illustrate your stories, perspectives and reflections through "objects" (pictures, newspaper clippings, etc) related to the political transition in your country. Field trips and discussions with eyewitnesses and activists will help us to understand the variety and diversity of the political transition processes in Europe. In the second phase of the workshop we will play and evaluate a simulation reflecting several aspects of the transitions. The setup of this regime change simulation is a fictitious country, which allows us to focus on some basic elements and dominant interest groups involved in these transitions throughout Europe. Participants will share experiences and reflect on the causes and consequences of the regime changes in their respective country, and the strategies used by citizens and governments to come to terms with it. This reflection will be based on their own experience and knowledge, challenged through the international setup of the group and discussion with experts, and sustained through active role-play in the regime change simulation. Fugl = Bird, birdwatching and the environment in Denmark

Subject area: Environment / sustainable development

Working language(s):

Target Group + Translation:

Relevant for all. Birdwatching experience is not necessary.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

1 Birds and Birdwatching. Birds live on all continents of the world. And they have caught the imagination of artists throughout the ages. Assisted by bird-experts (ornithologists) we will learn about the secret lives of birds. On daily nature-walks we will get personal experience in recognizing the different birds on the ground, in the trees, on the water and in the air. These walks will vary in length and time of day.

2 Birds in nature. Depending on the weather we will go on several all-day bird-watching trips. Options include going on a day-trip with a 100 year old commercial boat off the coast, going into the beautiful National park Mols Bjerger, and to the forest lakes of the area.

3 Birds and the environment. Through informative evenings we hear about birds' relation to the environment, the climate changes, the seasons etc. This is combined with stories and memories that the participants bring with them.

4 Feldballe Bird race. We explore birdwatching as a mix between socialising and sport.

5 Community event. The workshop will be held in the small village of Feldballe, and to experience local culture, as well as sharing what we have experienced together during the workshop, together with locals we will build nesting boxes and bird feeders both for our selves and for the community. We will place them around eg. the school, the kindergarden, and the church building.

The workshop takes place in Friland, Denmark's mortgagefree and owner-build intentional community. Friland is located in the village Feldballe, situated near forests, lakes, a National park and shoreline. This provides a chance to mix great nature-trips with first-hand experience with the low-cost, low-tech solutions applied in the everyday lives of ordinary citizens.

Please note deadline for expression of interest: 1 November 2011.

Audiovisuel participatif et territoires: entre créativité et citoyenneté, comment s'impliquer et fédérer les habitants sur un territoire ?

Subject area: Active citizenship

Addressing target groups with special needs

Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music

Working language(s): FR

Target Group + Translation:

Tout citoyen de l'UE, intéressé dans ses pratiques personnelles, par l'appropriation des TIC - et plus particulièrement la vidéo – pour : - développer sa participation citoyenne, - varier ses moyens d'expression - nourrir sa créativité - encourager la participation d'autres citoyens de son territoire, au sein d'un projet d'audiovisuel collectif. Ces ateliers pourront s'adresser notamment aux bénévoles déjà actifs au sein d'un projet d'audiovisuel participatif local ou aux personnes fortement motivées pour créer de telles initiatives ou s'y impliquer à l'avenir. Ces ateliers encourageront particulièrement la participation de toutes personnes risquant d'être socialement marginalisées et tous adultes migrants installés dans divers pays européens.

Citizens from UE, interested in ICT appropriation – and notably video - in their personal practices to: - develop their civic participation, - vary their expression tools - broaden their creativity - encourage participation of other citizen on their territory, in a collective participative audiovisual project. These workshops can be for volunteer already active in participative audiovisual projects or people highly motivated to get involved in such projects in the future. These workshops will particularly encourage participation of people who might be socially marginalized and adult migrants.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

I Avant-propos : Avec la multiplication des moyens de diffusion, et la baisse des coûts du matériel, l'audiovisuel représente un outil de plus en plus à portée de main de tous citoyens souhaitant s'impliquer autrement et collectivement sur son territoire. Mais quel projet audiovisuel participatif développer et pourquoi faire? Notre société de communication se trouve dans des étranges contradictions, en même temps submergée d'information sur le monde, elle ne parle plus à son voisin, et sollicitée continuellement par une myriade de possibles, elle génère des attitudes de plus en plus passives donc appauvrissantes. Depuis plus de 20 ans, des citoyens et des associations, dans différents pays de l'UE, en zone urbaine ou rurale, se servent de l'audiovisuel différemment, non plus seulement comme moyen d'information mais comme une démarche de communication humaine, ancrée dans le développement local, d'expression individuelle et collective, de création et de rencontre entre les habitants. Tout le monde y a sa place, personne ne doit en être exclu. Le constat: - Chaque télévision participative joue un rôle structurant, par la consolidation du tissu social, économique et culturel au sein de territoires spécifiques et déterminés - Les programmes remplissent un véritable rôle d'éducation populaire, auprès des publics, par l'éducation à l'image et la transmission des compétences aux bénévoles au sein des structures - Le rôle du politique est renforcé, grâce à la liberté de ton et d'expression que propose ces médias aux acteurs locaux dans leurs quotidiens. L'audiovisuel participatif n'est, pour autant, pas facile à mettre en œuvre. Il demande de véritables compétences de soutien aux habitants et de formation pour leur permettre de prendre la parole en construisant ainsi leur propre média audiovisuel, d'autant plus que la plupart de ces initiatives sont portées par des non professionnels, bénévoles (pour un ratio de 10 non professionnels contre 1). Le participatif se décline à tous les niveaux : - dans la conception, la réalisation et la diffusion d'un film (reportages, documentaires, fictions...) - dans la conception d'une programmation - dans l'élaboration d'un plateau - dans les diffusions collectives - dans l'interaction avec internet - dans les rencontres de quartiers

II Activités et programme : Les ateliers thématiques associeront étroitement : - expérimentation concrète de techniques (en tournage, montage, diffusion, animation de groupe) - réflexion sur le langage de l'image, les enjeux au niveau local de l'audiovisuel participatif Et s'appuieront sur : - des expériences concrètes de projets audiovisuels participatifs (visites de terrain, rencontres avec d'autres bénévoles ou des professionnels de l'audiovisuel participatif à Marseille, visionnage d'extraits de vidéo) - des exemples de bonnes pratiques Les ateliers s'effectueront en alternance entre : - activités de découverte et démonstratives en groupes, - travaux et mise en pratique en petites équipes (mise en place d'un réel plateau TV participatif dans l'espace public). En salle ou sur le terrain. Le formateur veillera à ce que les stagiaires échangent entre eux, s'épaulent et s'entraident dans les réalisations.

Thèmes du programme : - Audiovisuel participatif, de la finalité aux moyens - tour d'horizon des moyens de tournage, montage, diffusion - organisation, gouvernance et cadre juridique des médias participatifs - animation, participation et outils collaboratifs - médias participatifs et modèles économiques Chaque participant repartira avec le DVD du plateau télé réalisé en jour 5 et une compilation des réalisations apportés par chaque participant. L'identique sera remis à l'Agence Europe Education Formation France.

I Foreword: With the multiplication of broadcasting means and the drop of material costs, video represents now an accessible tool for all citizens who want to get involved in alternative and collective way on their territory. Which participative audiovisual project develop for which use ? For more than 20 years, citizen and NGO, in different EU countries, in urban or rural area use video in alternative ways. Not only as information means but also as a human communication approach, anchored in local development, as individual and collective expression, creativity and meeting means. Everybody can get involved. Nevertheless, participative audiovisual projects are not so easy to implement. Citizen need to develop their skills to build their own audiovisual media.

II Activities and program: Workshops will associate: - concrete technical experimentation (shooting, editing, broadcasting, group organization) - reflection on image langage, local issues And will be based upon : - concrete experiences of participative audiovisual projects (visits on fieldworks, meeting with other volunteers or professional in participative audiovisual field in Marseilles, video projection) - good practices examples Workshops will alternate between: - discovery and demonstrative activities in groups, - practical exercices (organization of a participative television set). Inside our training room or outside, in the field. Principal topics : - participative audiovisual, from aim to means - Overview of shooting, editing and broadcasting means - organization, governance and legal framework of participative media - team leading, participation and collaborative tools - participative media and economic models Each participant will leave with the DVD of the participative television set directed at the 5th day and a compilation of other films eventually brought by other participants. Artist, manager and pedagogical tutor of these workshops is : Sam KHEBIZI (manager of "Les Têtes de l'Art" and at the initiative of one of the participative TV in Marseilles).

Placés dans une situation où la communication ne passe pas par l'oralité, les apprenants, sourds et entendants, seront amenés à mobiliser les mêmes ressources. Quelles proportions de sourds et entendants ? Sourds et entendants seront représentés dans les mêmes proportions.

Deaf and hearing (not deaf) persons Why this mix? One of the objectives of Signes is to enable deaf and hearing people to get to know each other better. Real encounters between these two populations are rare because of the difficulties in communication. How? It was clearly important to choose a discipline not requiring verbal communication! Put into a situation where communication does not take place orally, the learners, deaf and hearing alike, are called upon to mobilize the same resources. What proportions of deaf and hearing? Deaf and hearing people will be represented in equal proportions.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Les participants découvriront un vocabulaire visuel pour conter une histoire en utilisant le mime, la chorégraphie et le « mime signé ». (Le « mime signé » est une technique où l'artiste utilise son corps pour représenter visuellement objets, événements ou actions. Cette technique ajoute des effets spéciaux visuels/physiques à une narration). Les participants observeront également les nuances subtiles différenciant le jeu de plusieurs personnages types pour développer de courtes performances solo avec plusieurs personnages, en utilisant le changement de personnage. Nous les aiderons à choisir un éventail de styles visuels pour développer de brèves narrations créées à partir de textes extraits de journaux, de magazines, de prose classique et de pièces classiques. Nous mettrons l'accent sur la manière de raconter une histoire avec les possibilités visuelles qu'elle offre, c'est-à-dire la manière de créer une narration visuelle. Cela implique des compétences dans l'adaptation d'un large éventail de textes.

Participants will explore a visual vocabulary for storytelling by considering the use of mime, choreography, and sign mime. (Sign Mime – is a technique whereby the performer remains stationary using his body and hands to visually represent objects, events or actions. It is a technique, which adds visual/physical special effects to a narrative). They will also look at some of the subtle nuances of characters in performance from stock characters so that they can develop short solo performances with multiple characters using character transition. Participants will be supported in choosing a range of visual styles to develop short narratives. The narratives will be created from a range of texts from newspapers, magazines and traditional prose and plays. The focus will be to look at how we can find ways of telling a story by considering visual possibilities, i.e. creating a visual narrative. This ultimately involves skills in adapting a wide range of texts.

Groupe-cible direct : l'atelier s'adresse particulièrement à de jeunes européens adultes (cœur de cible 18-35 ans) intéressés par les questions de développement et de solidarité internationale. Les participants pourront acquérir des outils pour sensibiliser leur entourage aux questions de développement. En aucun cas, il ne pourra s'agir de spécialistes ou de professionnels de l'éducation au développement. Nous serons également sensibles aux candidatures de jeunes de toutes nationalités (hors UE), étudiant ou travaillant en Europe. Groupe-cible indirect : des jeunes rennais issus de l'immigration en difficultés socio-économiques que nous associerons au projet lors d'une animation menée par les apprenants européens. Etudiants et Développement veillera à assurer la parité sur cet atelier.

Primary target-group: this workshop is mainly aimed at young adults (core target: youth from 18 to 35) interested in international cooperation and development issues. The participants will be given the opportunity to acquire some tools to increase awareness on development issues among their circle of friends and family. This workshop is not intended for professionals in the development education field. We will take a close look at the applications of non-EU citizens who work or study in the EU. Secondary target-group: migrant youth with socio-economical difficulties living in Rennes. They will be associated to the project by being part of the intercultural activity created by the European participants. Etudiants et Développement will pay a particular attention that the workshop associates an equal number of male and female participants.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

L'atelier vise à s'informer sur les différentes approches du développement et à se former à des pratiques innovantes en termes de sensibilisation à la citoyenneté et à la solidarité. Un premier temps sera consacré à partager les différentes perceptions du développement, en fonction de leur pays d'origine. Un deuxième moment de l'atelier consistera à prendre conscience par le jeu des principales problématiques du développement. Les participants pourront apprendre des techniques d'animation afin de sensibiliser aux relations Nord-Sud sous différentes formes -mises en situation, jeux de rôles et activités théâtrales. Une part importante de l'atelier sera consacrée au débriefing et à l'échange. Dans un troisième temps, les participants sensibiliseront eux-mêmes un groupe de jeunes migrants à travers un jeu qu'ils auront construit et testé avec l'aide des formateurs.

One of the workshop's goals is to share best practice around informal education and for the participants to discover new tools on how to create awareness on this topic. The first part will be devoted to exchanging on the various definitions of development, depending on their origins. A second moment of the workshop will be dedicated to raising awareness on development issues through games and role-playing. Participants will acquire tools to create awareness on North-South relations through diverse means - simulation exercises, role-playing, theater. An important part of the workshop will always be devoted to debriefing and exchanges among participants. During the third part of the workshop, the participants will create and lead a development education tool with migrant youth living in Rennes.

L'atelier « Les Spectateurs » propose à un groupe de participants européens de réaliser des courts-métrages basés sur le montage d'images d'archives fournies par l'Institut National de l'Audiovisuel (I.N.A.). Cet atelier fait partie d'un projet européen de création, d'éducation, et de diffusion entre la prison et la société : « Frontières, Dedans Dehors » soutenu par Marseille-Provence, Capitale Européenne de la Culture 2013. Cet atelier permettra aux participants de traverser une expérience à la fois artistique, pédagogique et humaine. Les trois premiers jours seront consacrés à une initiation technique et théorique sur l'archive et le cinéma et permettront aux participants de se découvrir. Le quatrième jour sera consacré à une rencontre « dedans-dehors » entre le groupe de participants et un groupe de personnes détenues impliquées sur le même projet d'atelier. Les deux jours suivants permettront de débiter le montage. Une rencontre avec des étudiants impliqués sur le même projet sera organisée. Les trois jours suivants, les courts-métrages seront finalisés. Un événement de diffusion des films réalisés sera organisé le dernier jour.

The « Spectators » workshop proposes to a group of European participants to make short-films based on editing of archival footages provided by the French National Audiovisual Institute (I.N.A.). This workshop is part of a European project of creation, education and transmission between prison and society: "Borders, inside-outside" supported by Marseille-Provence 2013, European Capital of Culture. This workshop will permit participants to live an artistic, pedagogical and human experience. The three first days will be dedicated to a technical and theoretical initiation on archives and cinema, and will allow participants to get to know each other. The fourth day will be dedicated to an 'inside-outside' meeting, between the European participants and a group of prisoners involved on the same project. The two following days will permit to start the editing. A meeting with French students also involved on the same project will take place. During the three last days, the short films will be finalized. An event to show the short films will be organised on the last day.

La voix dans l'Espace : déconstruire la musique vocale polyphonique

Subject area: Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music
European citizenship and European dimension
Cultural heritage

Working language(s): FR

Target Group + Translation:

Cet atelier est destiné aux chanteurs ou artistes amateurs qui souhaitent tenter une nouvelle expérience de musique vocale, basée sur l'écoute des autres et la déconstruction du schéma classique « groupe d'artistes sur scène face à un public ». Les participants doivent être intéressés par un processus d'expérimentation collective où l'essentiel n'est pas le résultat à atteindre mais le plaisir que l'on prend à suivre de nouvelles pistes pour enrichir ses sensations et son rapport à l'autre. L'atelier vise également à entraîner ceux qui, bien que passionnés par le chant ou la voix, n'osent pas chanter parce qu'ils pensent le faire mal, ou pas assez bien. La polyphonie musicale au sens premier du terme sera utilisée mais aussi les sons parlés, murmurés, parlés, criés etc. Enfin, les participants seront invités à expérimenter les possibilités de la musique amplifiée et assistée électroniquement pour enrichir en direct la production vocale humaine. L'atelier s'adresse donc à des personnes ayant, en amateur, une pratique vocale régulière quelle qu'elle soit (chorale, groupe, slam, rap...) mais la lecture de la musique n'est pas un pré requis pour cet atelier.

The workshop is aimed at amateur singers and artists looking to gain new vocal experience based on listening to others and deconstructing the classic "group of artists on stage in front of an audience" format. Participants will be interested in collective experimentation focussed more on the enjoyment of the process of exploration and finding new pathways in feeling and relating to others than on the end result. The workshop also aims to bring on those who have a passion for vocals or singing but who would otherwise not engage in it believing they sing either poorly or not well enough. Musical polyphony in a strict sense will play a part although spoken, whispered and shouted sounds will also be used. Finally, participants will be able to experiment with amplified and electronically assisted music and the ways these can enrich live human vocal production. The workshop would therefore be of interest principally to amateurs in regular practice whatever their discipline (choral, band, slam, rap...) although an ability to read music is not a prerequisite. The workshop is aimed at amateur singers and artists looking to gain new vocal experience based on listening to others and deconstructing the classic "group of artists on stage in front of an audience" format. Participants will be interested in collective

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

L'atelier vise à explorer la musique vocale comme un moyen de communication avec les autres au-delà du simple sens des mots, en se basant avant tout sur des nouvelles sensations sonores. L'atelier sera animé par un comédien chanteur professionnel ayant une expérience dans l'enseignement de la technique vocale, un directeur artistique de l'association Frères Poussière et un ingénieur du son ayant une compétence particulière dans l'exploration sonore. Nous enseignerons d'abord aux participants quelques bases de technique vocale afin d'apprendre à ne pas fatiguer sa voix et à utiliser un microphone. Nous exploiterons par la suite diverses formes d'expression vocale : chansons diverses dans plusieurs langues européennes, onomatopées, sons, percussions vocales (beatbox)... Le but étant de changer de regard vis-à-vis du « bien » ou du « mal » chanter et de prouver qu'il est toujours possible de faire de la musique ensemble sans « savoir faire ». Des pièces vocales basées sur une trame de départ enrichies d'improvisation seront ainsi préparées en répétition. Un ingénieur du son présentera aux participants les possibilités offertes par la musique amplifiée et les machines de sample et d'effets dont on dispose pour enrichir une performance vocale en temps réel. Il leur présentera ensuite le dispositif d'amplification original mis en place pour cet atelier : un ensemble de hauts parleurs répartis dans l'espace permettant de faire circuler les différentes voix en différents points. Les participants seront alors répartis en trois groupes : un premier groupe qui sera équipé de micros sans fil réalisera la pièce vocale en déambulant dans l'espace, un second groupe déambulera dans l'espace en se concentrant sur son ressenti, jouant le rôle du public et un troisième groupe assistera l'ingénieur du son à la régie. Les rôles seront ensuite intervertis. Après chaque session d'exploration, un point à chaud sera fait entre les groupes avec les animateurs pour noter le ressenti de chacun et décider des pistes à creuser ou à abandonner. Une restitution publique sera organisée durant la dernière après-midi de l'atelier.

The workshop aims to explore vocal music as a way of communicating with others beyond the basic meaning of the words used, based above all on new acoustic sensations. The workshop will be led by a professional actor-singer with experience in vocal coaching, an artistic director from the Frères Poussière association and a sound engineer who specializes in acoustic exploration. We will start by teaching the basics of vocal technique so participants do not wear out their voice and can learn to use a microphone. We will then explore different forms of vocal expression, including songs in different European languages, onomatopoeia, sounds, beatboxing and so on. The goal is to change participants' view of what constitutes 'good' or 'bad' singing and demonstrate that the group can make music together without requiring any specialist knowledge. During rehearsals, we will start from a basic frame and then improvise around it. A sound engineer will show participants what can be achieved using amplification and sampling machines to enrich their performance in real time. The engineer will also demonstrate the innovative sound installation created for the workshop, a set of speakers spread around the performance space that can produce different voices in different areas. The participants will be split into three groups: the first will work with wireless microphones and will perform a vocal piece while moving around the performance space; the second will follow, taking the place of the audience and paying attention to the sounds they hear and the third will work with the engineer at the sound desk. The different groups will all change places, and after each session, a debriefing will be held with all three groups and the workshop leaders to decide which elements should be maintained and which should be abandoned. A public performance will be held during the final afternoon of the workshop.

Working language(s): FR

Target Group + Translation:

L'atelier s'adresse à des adultes des pays éligibles au programme de Formation tout au long de la Vie intéressés par les activités artistiques et manuelles et concernés par les questions d'environnement et développement durable. Nous souhaitons accueillir des personnes de niveaux différents afin d'enrichir le partage d'expériences. Un niveau moyen de compétence dans une des trois langues de travail est nécessaire, ainsi qu'une bonne forme physique (activités de plain air). Par contre, l'expérience dans la pratique artistique ou manuelle n'est pas nécessaire

The workshop is intended to adults from countries eligible to Longlife Learning Programm and interested in artistic and handcraft activities as well as concerned by environmental and sustainable development issues. We wish to host people with different levels in order to share experiences. An average level of fluency in any of the working languages is needed and healthy as we'll practice some outdoor activities. Artistic or handcraft skills are not required.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

L'objectif principal de l'atelier est de transformer l'expérience quotidienne dans un nouvel environnement en expression artistique qui sera concrétisée par la réalisation d'un carnet de voyage. Le cours couvrira toutes les étapes de création des carnets, avec pratique artistique (croquis, écriture, gravure, collage, calligraphie, etc.) et des activités manuelles (fabrication de papier recyclé et d'encre végétales à partir d'éléments récoltés dans la nature ou de récupération, composition et mise en page, impression, reliure, etc.) Pour enrichir le contenu du carnet, des visites thématiques seront organisées, en relation avec les différents aspects du projet : culturels, naturels, historiques ... Chaque participant repartira avec son propre carnet, et un CD de photos et de documentation illustrant les différentes étapes, afin qu'il puisse garder trace de l'expérience et éventuellement la transmettre dans son entourage.

The workshop will be focused on the conversion of day-to-day experience in a new environment into an artistic expression which will be made concrete by the achievement of a log book. The course will cover all the stages of the achievement of the book, through art practise (sketches, writing, engraving, collages, calligraphy ...) and handcraft (making of recycled paper and vegetal inks from elements gathered in nature, composition and layout, binding ...) In order to improve the content of the book, thematic visits about different aspects of the project will be organised: cultural, natural, historical ... Each participant will bring his own log book with him and a CD with pictures and documents about the stages of achievement so that he can keep evidence of the experience and pass it on.

L'activité principale de l'atelier est la transmission du patrimoine musical traditionnel des participants par eux même et par voie orale. Les participants seront donc tour à tour apprenants et enseignants. Ainsi le programme de l'atelier sera : - Discussions théoriques sur la définition des musiques traditionnelles, sur les spécificités de chacune et sur la « créolisation » de ces musiques par l'influence européenne. - Ateliers pratiques de transmission des morceaux apportés par les participants. - Ateliers pratiques d'arrangement des ces morceaux pour l'orchestre créé par les participants. - Représentations publiques des résultats de l'Atelier, avec enregistrements sonores et visuels. En plus de ces activités précises, nous introduirons des discussions informelles sur la pédagogie de transmission de ces musiques traditionnelles (apprentissage non formel, oralité, structures éducatives des différents pays...) ainsi que sur le statut social des musiciens traditionnels dans les différents pays (reconnaissance, débouchés professionnelles...).

The main activity of the Workshop is the transmission of traditional musical heritage of the participants by themselves and orally. So participants will be learners or teachers from one activity to the other. Workshop program will include: - Discussions about the theoretical definition of traditional music, the specificity of each one and on the " hybridisation " of these musics by European influences. - Practical songs transmission workshops held by the participants. - Practical arrangement of these songs workshops for the orchestra created by the participants. - Public performances, with sounds and video recordings. We will also introduce informal discussions concerning the pedagogy of the transmission of traditional music (non-formal learning, orality, educational structures of various countries ...) and on the social status of traditional musicians in different countries (recognition, professional opportunities ...).

Découverte et métissage de pratiques artistiques

Subject area: Cultural heritage

Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music
European citizenship and European dimension

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

L'atelier est destiné à des adultes de tous âges, intéressés par les pratiques artistiques et par la rencontre de leurs univers tant au plan multiculturel (dimension européenne) que pluridisciplinaire : d'une part personnes travaillant les arts plastiques avec des éléments naturels ou interrogeant la nature dans leur expression ; d'autre part personnes pratiquant la musique, engagées dans un travail sur les mots et les idées. Il s'adresse par ailleurs à des personnes désireuses de s'investir dans la mise en œuvre d'actions culturelles participatives et ouvertes à un large public.

This workshop is opened to adults of any age, interested with artistic practices and willing to melt their cultural and artistic universes: on one hand, people practicing plastic arts with natural material, on the other hand, people playing music, writing texts or poetry. This workshop also addresses people who would like to get involved in the conception of cultural actions based on participative principles and opened to all. This workshop is opened to adults of any age, interested with artistic practices and willing to melt their cultural and artistic universes: on one hand, people practicing plastic arts with natural material, on the other hand, people playing music, writing

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Cet atelier émane d'une double volonté, celle de proposer une expérience de création pluridisciplinaire et plurinationale à des personnes en quête de découvertes artistiques et d'approfondir la dimension européenne du FestiFaï 2012, un événement culturel développé depuis trois ans en milieu rural, réunissant artistes comédiens, chanteurs et plasticiens sur plusieurs lieux. L'atelier articulera plusieurs activités : - Sessions de découverte des univers artistiques et projets de chaque participant - Ateliers de création collective mêlant les mots, la musique, les arts plastiques et la nature, visant à déboucher sur une soirée artistique au théâtre de verdure de la ferme du Faï. - Interventions d'acteurs culturels impliqués dans le développement d'événements culturels innovants, alliant amateurs et professionnels et s'appuyant sur le tissu associatif local. - Rencontres avec des artistes confirmés programmés dans le cadre du FestiFaï 2012 - Présentations d'œuvre visuelles et musicales lors de temps d'échanges et de rencontres avec le public

The motivations to set up this workshop are double. The idea is to propose to people looking for artistic innovations, an original creative experience melting different cultures and different artistic practices. Another aspect of this workshop is to bring a European coloration to FestiFaï 2012, a local cultural event organized since 2009 in a rural environment, bringing together comedians, poets, musicians and plastics technicians. The main activities of the workshop will be: - Discovery sessions of each participant's practice and personal project - Collective workshops melting different elements (words, music, plastic arts), aiming at assembling a collective creation which will be presented at the Fai open air theatre, in the framework of the festival - Presentations of visual or musical creations to the public of the festival - Presentations by cultural workers, involved in the development of original cultural actions bringing together professional and amateurs and relying on the local social society. - Meetings with professional artists programmed in the festival

Working language(s): EN

We encourage participation by older learners from communities in the country where they are living, and will invite 5 older learners from our own community to take part. Especially appealing to mature people wishing to embark on a new learning experience, the workshop will have a demonstrable potential impact on the individuals - who will have the opportunity to meet and share experiences with like-minded people from across Europe. A clear plan for language and cultural awareness training will help learners overcome barriers. The workshop will appeal to adults with an interest in the arts and culture; it is fun, interactive and will provide an innovative experience, including activities such as storytelling, dancing, craft, music, cookery and language. Participants will be able to share knowledge and experience of their own country's arts and cultural heritage.

Move to the Beat! – Understanding contemporary and classical music in the UK through the medium of foreign musical influence

Subject area: Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music
Cultural heritage
Intergenerational learning / learning in later life / senior citizens

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

The main target groups this workshop aims to reach are: Older/Senior learners; Adult Learners
Learners with no or low qualifications; Adults who are not currently in employment; Adults from rural areas; Adults from minority groups.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

This workshop will provide a fascinating insight into contemporary and classical music in the UK and an opportunity to explore the influence that other cultures and backgrounds have upon both modern and historical musical tastes. Current musical preferences and patterns in the UK have been widely influenced by African, Asian and American music. The workshop will look at musical influences throughout the ages and how ‘traditional’ song and dance have become increasingly multicultural due to the globalisation of the music industry. Participants will be invited to research the music of their own country and share examples of how the music they hear has changed over the years. Music workshops during the week will include drumming techniques, stringed instruments, post-modern music making techniques and a dance session based on rhythm and beat (with an ethnic twist). These will be delivered by experts. Participants will experience musical examples and instrumental techniques typical of a range of countries, both from the past and the present. They will have the opportunity to investigate, compare and contrast the music of their own native country with that of other participants. By engaging with new techniques alongside other participants, participants will be able to share the experience, discuss ideas and gain an appreciation of the music of other cultures. Cultural visits to places of interest and importance, such as the Symphony Hall in Birmingham and the Civic Hall in Stratford Upon Avon will allow participants the opportunity to explore the musical and cultural history of the area.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

This Learner Workshop aims to enable participants to undertake an informal life review and a forward planning exercise at a point of change in their lives. Participants may be coming towards the end of their working lives, or wishing to make significant changes, or have already started a new phase of their lives. In any case, they will have years ahead which need planning and this planning needs to take account of their past work and life experience.

Through a series of participatory exercises involving improvisation, writing & visual arts, we shall enable the participants to reflect on and share aspects of their working and private lives, and to make concrete plans for the years ahead. They will experience innovative, inclusive approaches to learning to share with others in their home countries. We shall provide a safe environment for personal exploration with others at a similar stage in life, but from different EU countries, to help in negotiating key turning points and managing change.

There will be many opportunities for cultural and social exchange within the group.

Workshop leader: Pam Schweitzer, Director, European Reminiscence Network, supported by a range of experienced tutors from the UK and other EU countries

The workshop will be of interest to:

- People over the age of 50 who have recently retired or been made redundant
- People who are preparing for retirement or leaving full-time employment
- Older free-lance workers whose work/non-work life balance is shifting, with special focus for people who have previously worked with older people or in the field of ageing.
- Theatre and other arts workers interested in applying creative approaches to this area of life experience.

30 év feletti korosztályából minden életkorból várjuk a jelentkezőket, akik nyitottak a kultúraközi kapcsolódásokra és személyes fejlődésre táncterápiás és kreatív kifejezőművészet-terápiás tevékenységeken keresztül. Előzetes tánc tudás vagy technikai tudás nem szükséges. A program lényege éppen annak a sajátélményű felfedezésére szolgál, hogy MINDENKIBEN benne rejlik az alkotás és az egyéni kreativitás kibontakoztatásának, s ezen keresztül egy jobb életminőség elérésének lehetősége.

Participants of any age group above 30 are welcome, who are interested in creative intercultural exchange, and personal growth via dance therapy and expressive arts therapy activities. No prior experience or any kind of dance and technical knowledge is needed. The main aim of the programme is to become aware of the ever-presence of creative unfolding in EVERYONE via hands-on art therapeutic activities, which leads to a better quality of life.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Az élet kezdeténél az érzékelés, és a kifejezés is multimodális, ez a multimodalitás teszi lehetővé később a művészeti kifejezést. Az egyhetes műhely során minden nap más és más kifejezőeszközök kapnak kiemelt szerepet, de fontos ezek egymásba fonódása, mindenképp az autentikus, belülről indított mozgás által támogatva. Ezért ezeket nem választjuk el mereven. A modalitások közötti átjárhatóságot segítő, változatos gyakorlattípusokkal dolgozunk. 1. nap: A bennünk élő Táncos kutatása, 2. nap: A bennünk élő Festő kutatása, 3. nap: A bennünk élő Zenész kutatása, 4. nap: A bennünk élő Szobrász kutatása, 5. nap: A bennünk élő Mesélő kutatása, 6. nap: A bennünk élő Előadóművész kutatása, 7. nap: A bennünk élő Művész formát ölt – Integráció, tanulságok levonása, értékelés.

At the beginning of life perception as well as expression is multimodal. This multimodality – in later life – makes artistic expression possible. In our one-week long workshop each day a different artistic modality will be focused on, although it is necessary to use them intertwined, based on authentic bodily sensations and movement. That's why we don't set them apart rigidly. To help the permeability among modalities we work with a multitude of types of exercises. DAY 1: Exploring the hidden Dancer within DAY 2: Exploring the hidden Painter within DAY 3: Exploring the hidden Musician within DAY 4: Exploring the hidden Sculptor within DAY 5: Exploring the hidden Story-teller within DAY 6: Exploring the hidden Performer within DAY 7: The hidden Artist takes shape – Integration, conclusions, evaluation

Jewellery and fashion design This program welcomes young people ages 16-35 from all over Europe.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

E kísérleti műhely során a résztvevők a hagyományos cigány/roma motívumokon keresztül két világba nyernek párhuzamosan betekintést: a hagyományos európai roma kultúrák világába, és a mai kortárs divat és design világába.

A résztvevőknek a hagyományos cigány motívumokból kiindulva lehetőségük lesz a szimbólumok mögött húzódó történelem, szokások, hiedelmek, társadalmi berendezkedések, ünnepek, és ételek megismerésére. Ugyanakkor kipróbálhatják magukat a divattervezés és a design területén is, ahol szakemberek lépésről lépésre végigkálauzolják és segítik őket egy általuk választott öltözék, kiegészítő (ékszer, táska, sál), használati vagy dísz tárgy megtervezésében és elkészítésében, így ismerkedve meg elméletben és gyakorlatban egyaránt a design folyamat lépéseivel és a design befolyásoló sokféle szemponttal.

Délelőttönként a motívumok megfejtésére és a roma kultúra sajátosságaira fektetjük a hangsúlyt, és dolgozni fogunk saját előítéleteinkkel is.

Délután pedig egyéni vagy kiscsoportos alkotó munka keretében - többek között - ékszert, ruhát, párnát vagy képkeretet tervezhetnek és készíthetnek a résztvevők. A program keretében vendégségbe megyünk hagyományörző roma családokhoz, készítünk tipikus cigány ételleket, táncot és zenélést tanulunk, és lehetőségünk lesz roma emberek életútjainak megismerésére is.

In this experimental workshop, we attempt to bring together two unrealed fields: the world and culture of Roma across Europe and the world of design. Taking traditional Gypsy symbols and motifs as a starting point, participants will discover the history, beliefs and cultural heritage of Roma people across Europe, and specifically in Hungary. At the same time participants can challenge themselves with task of turning these traditional motifs into modern design objects, such as a silver jewel, a mirror frame, a pillow, a T-shirt, and many more. Professionals will guide participants through each step of the process from initiating them into the steps of the design process to the actual production of the article.

In the mornings, we will focus on the theme of Roma culture, and also work with our own prejudices. The afternoons will be devoted to the creative work, as well as getting first hand experience of Roma culture through meeting local families and cooking traditional Roma dishes, singing, dancing and playing music with them. Participants will also have the unique experience to interview traditional Roma families about their life paths.

Voluntarily Europe. Culture of volunteering , multicultural integration, European awareness (Volontariamente Europa. Cultura del volontariato, integrazione multiculturale, coscienza europea)

Subject area: intercultural education

Working language(s): IT

Target Group + Translation:

Adulti residenti in Europa interessati ad attività di volontariato in campo umanitario, interculturale ed interrazziale, come pure alle problematiche politico-sociali legate all'immigrazione. .

Adults living in Europe interested into humanitarian, intercultural and interracial volunteering, as well as to social and political subjects linked to immigration.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

L'Europa raccoglie al suo interno numerose etnie e culture. La multiculturalità di una nazione può destare preoccupazione nella popolazione residente allorché non venga presentata come un fattore di arricchimento reciproco: per questo è necessario avviare un processo di integrazione delle diverse etnie all'interno del tessuto sociale. Ciò è possibile, a livello locale, avvicinando i cittadini alle realtà vissute dagli immigrati ed alle associazioni di volontariato che operano in campo umanitario, interculturale ed interrazziale. A fianco delle attività locali è importante promuovere anche le iniziative ideate dalle istituzioni dell'Unione Europea, per creare un comune senso di responsabilità e sviluppare l'attivismo a livello internazionale. Il Seminario si propone di toccare i temi e le problematiche suddette, con l'intenzione di favorire il dialogo interculturale e diffondere le attività di volontariato legate all'integrazione interrazziale.

I discenti amplieranno le proprie conoscenze sulle differenze socio-economiche tra le zone del mondo, ricollegando fattori storico-politici con i loro effetti in termini di fenomeni migratori. Al termine del Seminario avranno una più solida coscienza dell'importanza dell'integrazione e del dialogo multiculturale, raggiunti sia tramite attività di volontariato a livello locale che iniziative dell'Unione Europea, così come dell'interdipendenza tra Europa e resto del globo dal punto di vista economico e culturale. Inoltre, i partecipanti verranno messi direttamente in contatto con associazioni ONLUS impegnate nel volontariato umanitario, di modo che potranno autonomamente aderire alle loro iniziative anche a seguito del Seminario, avviando una collaborazione duratura nel tempo.

Different ethnic groups and cultures live together in the European Union. Multiculturalism can often cause worry among the people, if it is not understood as a possibility for a mutual enrichment. For all these reasons, it is necessary to start a process of integration of various ethnic groups inside the society. This is possible, on local level, bringing citizens closer to immigrants' everyday life and to volunteering associations that work in the humanitarian, intercultural and interracial field. In addition to local activities, it is also important to promote initiatives at a European level, in order to create a common sense of responsibility and to increase participation on international level. The Workshop aims to develop the above-mentioned subjects, to encourage intercultural dialogue and to support voluntary activities linked to interracial integration

The attendees will have a deeper knowledge of the socio-economic differences among different world areas, connecting historical and political factors to their migratory effects and consequences. It is expected that at the end of the Workshop they will have a stronger awareness of the importance of the integration and of the multicultural dialogue, reached thanks to both local volunteering and activities of the European Union. They will be more conscious of the interdependence between Europe and the rest of the world, both considering the economical and the cultural point of view. Moreover, the attendees will have the opportunity to be in touch with no-profit associations working in the humanitarian field. In this way, they will be able to take contacts and potentially to participate to their initiatives and activities, starting a long-term collaboration

Nella prima parte dello Workshop, nell'ambito di laboratori creativi, i partecipanti saranno chiamati a presentare se stessi e raccontare il proprio gruppo di provenienza attraverso diversi linguaggi dell'espressione creativa: attività di brainstorming, narrazione e condivisione, drammatizzazione, visualizzazione delle singole esperienze. I contenuti dei racconti e i documenti raccolti saranno l'oggetto della seconda parte del lavoro, dove i partecipanti, guidati da esperti tecnici, procederanno all'archiviazione e alla trattazione digitale dei materiali. Expected outputs: I partecipanti svilupperanno la capacità di tradurre in termini linguistici e visuali i diversi temi legati alla propria vicenda personale o a un vissuto condiviso. In seguito, nella fase di registrazione e postproduzione, si confronteranno direttamente con programmi digitali per la videoscrittura, il ritocco fotografico, il montaggio video e audio, acquisendo le competenze base dei rispettivi processi. Tutto il materiale raccolto sarà reso disponibile on line su una piattaforma, aperta all'aggiornamento e all'implementazione dei partecipanti, per la diffusione e l'approfondimento di una sensibilità europea al diritto di cittadinanza. Practical arrangements: Lo workshop si terrà a Firenze nei locali del centro ExFila – Conessioni metropolitane, uno spazio attrezzato, in posizione periferica ma facilmente raggiungibile. I partecipanti alloggeranno in camere doppie o triple con bagno e consumeranno insieme i pasti in strutture convenzionate. Le spese di soggiorno (vitto, alloggio e trasporti locali) saranno prese in carico direttamente dall'Organizzatore. Per quanto riguarda le spese di viaggio, l'Organizzatore le rimborserà ai partecipanti dietro presentazione dei biglietti originali e delle carte d'imbarco. In caso di rinuncia, le spese di viaggio non saranno rimborsate.

Dates of the Workshop: 16-24/03/2012 (including 2 days travel) Venue of the Workshop: ExFila_Conessioni metropolitane, Florence (Italy) Topic of the Workshop: The project aims at developing a diffuse awareness of belonging to Europe, through the creation of an actual network between citizens expressing minority groups within the European Union, by making them share their stories and memories. The project also aims at providing knowledge and tools to create a relational system, at national and international level, interweaving the collective experiences and cultural assets in a common on-line data base. Language of the Workshop: English / Italian Target group(s): Adult European citizens having knowledge of oral stories and assets at risk of disappearance, and more specifically: belonging to linguistic minority groups; involved in historical events that are not sufficiently documented; coming from communities being isolated (mountains, islands) or aggregated in specific work or supply chains. The selection will be based on actual belonging to these minorities (or being near and familiar with them), on evaluation of the documents that the candidates will propose for sharing and filing, on aptitude for group work and creative expression, and on the interest for ICT. Expected number of participants: 20 (whereof 4 Italians) Main activities / programme of the Workshop: The planned activities are based on a practice of creative training, of "learning by doing". In the first part of the workshop, the creative laboratories, participants will be asked to present themselves and to narrate their group of origin through different languages of creative expression: brainstorming, narrating and sharing, dramatization, visualization of individual experiences. The content of the stories told and of the documents collected will be at the core of the second part of the workshop, where the participants, tutored by technical experts, will proceed to filing and digitalising of the materials. Expected outputs: Participants will learn how to translate in linguistic and visual terms the different topics and issues connected to their personal life or shared experiences. In the phase of recording and post-production, they will be directly confronted with digital assets for word processing, photo retouch, video and audio editing, thus acquiring basic competences in these processes. All collected materials will be made available on an on-line platform, open to further updating and implementation by the participants, a tool for disseminating Europe-wide a deeper awareness on the entitlement to citizenship. Practical arrangements: The workshop will be held in Florence (Italy) at the venue ExFila_Conessioni metropolitane, an equipped space in the outskirts, but easy to reach. Accommodation will be in twin rooms with bath, and all meals will be consumed together. Subsistence costs, as well as local travels, will be covered directly by the Organiser. As for travel costs, the Organiser will reimburse them to the participants on presentation of original tickets and boarding cards. In case of withdrawal of a participant, travel expenses will not be reimbursed.

Topic of the workshop: Raw Material: Light | Landscape Photography Concept: The core concept of the workshop is that a landscape necessarily reflects a peculiar relation between a community and its natural environment. Photography is a key to visually explore that relation, in that it provides the opportunity to approach the understanding of the liaison between man and nature, in a specific context. To this regard, the town of Cortona, in the heart of Tuscany, offers an extraordinary setting for dwelling in this relation, which is often harmonic, though not always. Here, photographers of different origins and backgrounds will undertake the challenge of deciphering a landscape dense with history, as well as personal and family stories. Such a challenge will ultimately contribute to a better understanding of the photographers' own ways of looking at the world, and at themselves. Main activities of the Workshop: lectures on landscape photography by professional experts; hands-on ICT lectures on operating the digital darkroom and setting up a photo blog; practice: street photography; night photography; indoor and outdoor photography; project concept development, one-to-one sessions with experienced photographers; full day excursion. Expected outputs: All participants will develop their own personal project, reflecting their visual approach to the landscape of Cortona. All materials will be published on the photo blog and widely disseminated. Practical arrangements: most probably all participants will reach Cortona by air, landing either in Florence or Perugia. They will be transferred to a high quality hosting facility in Cortona, where they will be provided with full board service for 7 nights. Lectures will take place in a specific classroom, equipped with computers, relevant software and a projector.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Nel corso del workshop ogni partecipante dovrà sviluppare ed elaborare una storia legata al tema del workshop, costruita attingendo al proprio "vissuto" personale, ma che possa contenere anche elementi di finzione. Durante la settimana i partecipanti affronteranno due percorsi, uno teorico e uno pratico, strettamente correlati: Il percorso teorico è pensato per fornire stimoli e riflessioni che i partecipanti possano utilizzare per le loro storie: - un incontro con scrittori e autori che hanno affrontato il tema dell'immigrazione \ visite ai luoghi di Torino a forte densità di immigrati \ incontri e discussioni con immigrati di diversa provenienza e diversa età. Il percorso pratico prevede la partecipazione di tre docenti, due tutor per la parte di scrittura, un tutor per la parte di narrazione orale. Alla fine del progetto tutti i testi verranno raccolti in un volume, mentre i lavori che più si prestano ad un racconto orale verranno utilizzati per un reading pubblico effettuato presso la Fiera del Libro di Torino. Risultati attesi: - abilità nel costruire storie e nel raccontarle oralmente; - fornire uno stimolo per la definizione della propria identità culturale; - Facilitare il passaggio di memorie, esperienze e storie tra generazioni diverse, - Affermare l'importanza del riconoscimento delle proprie radici culturali come valore all'interno di una Europa dei popoli e delle nazioni; Il workshop si svilupperà all'interno delle aule del Centro Studi Holden: i partecipanti verranno ospitati all'interno del medesimo hotel per facilitare la conoscenza reciproca.

During the workshop each participant will develop and build a history tied to the theme of the workshop, built from its own "experience", but it can also contain elements of fiction. During the week participants will follow two paths, theoretical and practical. The course is designed to provide theoretical reflections that participants can use for their stories - a meeting with writers and authors \ visits of Torino locations with high immigration population \ meetings and discussions with immigrants from different backgrounds and different ages. The course involves three professors, two tutors for the part of writing, a tutor for the part of oral narration. At the end of the project all the texts will be collected in one volume and will be used for a reading public that will be carried out at the Book Fair in Turin. Expected Results: - Ability to write and tell stories; - Provide a reflection about your own cultural identity; - Facilitate the transfer of memories, stories and experiences between different generations, - Affirm the importance of recognition of their cultural roots as a value within a Europe of peoples and nations; The workshop will be developed within the halls of the Centro Studi Holden: participants will be accommodated within the same hotel to facilitate mutual understanding.

Flash Animation Studios for European learners

Subject area: media and communication

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Il workshop si propone di formare un primo livello di base per la creazione di video-animazioni con programmi che permettono, appunto, lo sviluppo di animazioni e il loro video-editing. Allievi dotati di forte motivazione e predisposizione verso i settori della video-produzione e dell'animazione, con capacità basilari di disegno/modellazione, conoscenza o predisposizione all'utilizzo di strumenti informatici per la creazione d'immagini (su piattaforma MAC e/o Windows). Essi dovranno avere, in partenza, buone capacità di disegno a mano libera.

The workshop wants to provide a first basic level for the use and production of video animations with programs that allow, in fact, the creation of animation and their video-editing. Learners with strong motivation and predisposition toward the areas of video production and animation, with basic skills to design/modeling, knowledge or predisposition to the use of computer tools for the creation of images (MAC platform and/or Windows). They should have, at beginning, good capacities in freehand drawing.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

ATTIVITA' PRINCIPALI: L'attività sarà articolata in 2 fasi fondamentali: 1. Preparazione linguistica-pedagogica-culturale (comprensione della cittadinanza europea, conoscenza, scambio e confronto tra i partecipanti, conoscenza e visita dell'area geografica in cui si svolge il workshop, lezioni di lingua, ecc); 2. Workshop (lezioni teoriche e pratiche, in aula). FASE è volto a migliorare la passione/attitudine per il disegno a mano libera e a consentire l'utilizzo di programmi informatici che permettono di disegnare con il computer (quali, appunto, Flash): per finalizzare i vari progetti il lavoro manuale deve essere infatti accompagnato dallo studio del software per l'animazione 2D. Il workshop è mirato all'uso pratico dell'applicazione Flash con continue esercitazioni associate ai concetti teorici introdotti. Infatti, la parte finale del workshop sarà dedicata a un concreto esempio, ovvero l'assemblaggio di uno "short-clip" (video-clip di 2-3 min. max.) contenente: - un preload, - una "movieclip" cartoon (scannerizzazione, colorazione, montaggio), - alcune scritte animate (titoli di testa e di coda, sottotitoli, ...), - eventuali pulsanti (come "replay" o altro...).

I discenti saranno in grado di usare le principali tecniche di animazione per la creazione di filmati Flash 2D destinati sia al web che alla distribuzione su supporti ottici, ampliando notevolmente le loro opzioni lavorative.

The activity will be implemented in 2 fundamental phases: 1. Language-cultural-educational training (understanding of European citizenship, knowledge, exchange and comparison among participants, knowledge and visit of the geographical area in which the workshop plays, language lessons, etc.); 2. Workshop (theoretical and practical lessons in the classroom). FASE is designed to enhance the passion/aptitude for free-hand drawing and to allow the use of computer programs that permit to draw with the computer (as, indeed, Flash): to finalize the various projects, manual work must be accompanied by the study of software for 2D animation. The workshop is targeted for use of Flash with practical exercises associated with the continuous theoretical concepts introduced. Indeed, the final part of the workshop will be devoted to a concrete example, namely the assembly of a "short clip" (video-clip of 2-3 min. max.) containing: - a preload, - a "movieclip" cartoon (scanning, coloring, editing), - some animated phrases (titles of opening and closing credits, subtitles, ...) - any buttons (like "replay" or else ...).

Learners will be able to use the main animation techniques to create 2D Flash movies addressed to the web and to the distribution on optical media, extending very much their employment options.

Il workshop si propone di migliorare le conoscenze riguardo la democrazia elettronica (e-democracy) e gli strumenti di partecipazione democratica attiva ai fini della pianificazione di politiche a livello locale che abbiano come obiettivo lo sviluppo della democrazia partecipativa. Il programma è diviso in due sessioni: una prima sessione teorica di introduzione in grado di agevolare gli strumenti di base per comprendere meglio il processo che, a partire dal Forum sociale mondiale di Porto Alegre nel 1992, ha portato alla definizione di concetti quali: democrazia partecipativa, "glocalizzazione" e della democrazia elettronica (e-democracy). La sessione pratica prevede la creazione di social forums sul web, al fine di mettere in pratica le nozioni teoriche apprese. I partecipanti saranno divisi in gruppi che riflettono la loro provenienza geografica e ciascuno di loro creerà un forum sociale relativo alla propria regione-paese, per poterlo integrare successivamente nel Forum Sociale dell'ACT-IN. •Risultati attesi: I partecipanti dovranno migliorare le loro conoscenze sulla democrazia elettronica (e-democracy) e la democrazia partecipativa, con un focus particolare sugli strumenti, come i forum sociali e blogs. I partecipanti saranno 24 (20 non italiani e 4 italiani) provenienti da 5 Paesi Europei: durante la sessione pratica saranno creati 6 social forum (uno per ciascuna regione-paese), e sarà suddivisa a livello regionale e ogni gruppo di lavoro sarà responsabile per lo sviluppo del proprio forum e dell'integrazione dello stesso nel Forum Sociale dell'ACT-IN.

The workshop aims to improve knowledge of instruments like e-democracy and democratic participation for the planning of policies at the local level that have as their objective the development of participatory democracy. The program is divided into two sessions: a theoretical introduction, which will facilitate the basic tools to better understand the process which, from the World Social Forum in Porto Alegre in 1992, led to the definition of concepts such as participatory democracy, "glocalization" and e-democracy. The practical session involves the creation of social forums on the web, in order to put into practice the theoretical knowledge learned. Participants will be divided into groups that reflect their geographical origin and each of them will create a social forum at region-country level, in order to integrate it in the Social Forum of the ACT-IN.

Participants will improve their knowledge on e-democracy and participatory democracy, with a particular focus on tools such as social forums and blogs. Participants will be 24 (20 non-Italian and Italian 4) from 5 European countries: during the practice session will be created 6 different Social Forums (one for each region-country), and will be divided regionally and each working group will be responsible for the development of its integration in the same forum as well as in the Social Forum of the ACT-IN.

Enable food for thought

Subject area: Addressing target groups with special needs

Learning about European countries

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

Il target group sono persone adulte con lievi forme di disabilità mentali (Sindrome di Down, Asperger, lievi ritardi) e forme di disabilità fisiche (muti, sordi o con limitazioni fisiche). Prevediamo la partecipazione di persone dai seguenti paesi dell'Europa Unita: Italia, Lettonia, Lituania, Polonia, Slovacchia e Svezia. Inoltre abbiamo richiesto la presenza di un tutor per paese che segua il suo gruppo nazionale nel proprio paese d'origine.

The target group is people with light forms of mental disabilities (Asperger, Down syndrome, light retards, deaf, mute, physically impaired). We expect to have participants from the following EU countries: Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden. Moreover we have requested one tutor per country who would follow each national group of participants on a daily basis.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Ispirati dall'espressione inglese "food for thought" ("cibo per la mente") puntiamo a creare una serie di attività che abilitino le capacità dei partecipanti e li aiutino a raggiungere un grado più alto di autosufficienza: dal far la spesa al cucinare, dalle attività fisiche a quelle ricreative ed interculturali. Tutte queste attività pratiche possono stimolare la consapevolezza mentale ed incrementare la qualità delle vite di queste persone comunemente percepite come dipendenti dagli altri. Nello specifico avremo tutti i giorni un sistema di lavoro per cui i partecipanti saranno impegnati contemporaneamente nell'apprendimento e nell'elaborazione di pietanze per la colazione, pranzo e cena: partendo dal numero di commensali e dalle loro predilizioni culinarie, impareranno a scegliere i cibi, a comporre un menù variato e salutare, a utilizzare diverse tecniche di cottura, ad imbandire la tavola e creare atmosfere con decorazioni, luce e musica, impareranno le enormi sull'igiene e sulla sicurezza in cucina, comunemente scontate per i più ma non per chi, come i disabili, hanno poca dimistichezza con tutto ciò. I tempi di lavoro culinario saranno pertanto la mattina presto, gli orari di pranzo e cena. Le fasce orario in piena mattinate sono riservate ad attività motorie e sportive, rigorosamente improntate sugli sport di squadra, per educare praticamente i partecipanti disabili allo stile di via di "mens sana in corpore sano". Nella fascia oraria pomeridiana invece tra pranzo e cena ci saranno workshop di approfondimento culinario (vedi piano delle attività giornaliera), mentre dopo cena ci saranno le serate 7 interculturali: 6 dedicate ai paesi presenti e preparate nei propri paesi d'origine prima di venire in Italia con l'ausilio del tutor locale e di uno nostro che invieremo ad hoc, la 7a ed ultima serata del progetto dedicata all'Europa Unita verrà creata insieme in Italia. In tal modo inviteremo i partecipare a condividere le proprie tradizioni nazionali con particolare attenzione alla danza, alla musica ed ai giochi e daremo ulteriore spazio all'attività fisica e al coinvolgimento emotivo. Tutte le attività verranno ospitate nella struttura ricettiva a Poggio Mirteto dove gestiamo un'ostello della gioventù da circa un decennio. L'alloggio è previsto in camere con bagno proprio. Disponiamo di un'ampia cucina, di un ampio refettorio, di una sala conferenza, di connessione Internet Wi-fi, di sala proiezione e di una reception con funzioni anche di ufficio. I trasporti locali saranno garantiti tramite l' utilizzo di autobus, il trasporto dall'aeroporto alla struttura ricettiva è molto pratico visto che il treno collega direttamente l'aeroporto di Fiumicino con Poggio Mirteto. Da aggiungere che disponiamo anche di trasporto indipendente (due auto) disponibili 24 ore al giorno per qualunque evenienza. Per il resto siamo nel cuore del borgo medievale, il nuovo centro moderno è a 500 metri, ed è allestito con negozi e servizi ed offre un'ottima accoglienza ai visitatori.

Being inspired by the English expression "food for thought" we aim at creating a series of activities who can enable the participants' skills and support them to reach a higher degree of self-sufficiency. From shopping to cooking, from physical activities to recreational and intercultural ones. All these practical tasks can activate mental awareness and increase the quality of life of these participants commonly perceived as dependant on others. Concretely, every day we will have a working system to have all participants focused on learning and elaborating dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner: starting from the number of guests around the table and their requests, participants will choose ingredients, create a diverse and healthy menu, adopt several cooking methods, lay the tables and create atmospheres with decorations, music and light, they will learn norms of hygiene and safety in the kitchen, which are normally taken for granted but probably not for them. The working hours will be then in the early mornings, lunch time and dinner time. The working hours in the mid-morning will be used for sport and motion activities, all based on team play, to educate in a very practical way the disabled participants to the lifestyle known as "mens sana in corpore sano" ("healthy mind in healthy body"). In the afternoon hours between lunch and dinner we will deepen the knowledge by dealing with more cooking skills and tips (see the "Planning of Activities" for all the details), whereas after dinner there will be 7 intercultural evenings: 6, dedicated to the participating countries, will be prepared in each country before coming to Italy with the help of the national tutors and our Italian tutors who we will send abroad for preparation; the 7th evening of the project will be dedicated to the EU and will be created altogether on the spot. Thus, we will invite all the participants to share their national traditions with particular attention to dances, music and games in order to give space to physical and emotional involvement. All the activities will be hosted in our structure in Poggio Mirteto where we have run a youth hostel for almost a decade. We can rely on a spacious kitchen and refectory, a conference hall, Wi-fi Internet connection, a projection room and a reception used as an office, too. Local transportation consists of buses whereas the transfer from Fiumicino airport is very convenient as there is a direct train to Poggio Mirteto. Furthermore we can add that we can rely on our own transportation consisting of two private cars, available 24 hours a day for all our needs. We are in the heart of the medieval town, the modern centre is 500 metres away and it offers shops and services welcoming visitors at its best.

Il laboratorio è luogo del fare, che approda alla realizzazione artigianale di prodotti irripetibili. 'Le voyage dans la lune' è uno scambio pratico tra culture e generazioni. 'Théâtre et musique pour plonger dans l'Europe' evoca una lettura corale della realtà con gli strumenti di teatro e musica. La diversa provenienza dei partecipanti spingerà a dedicare ampio spazio allo sviluppo delle capacità comunicative non-verbali; passaggio successivo sarà la condivisione di una storia, momento in cui le diverse lingue-culture diventeranno valore aggiunto e risorsa inaspettata per un racconto corale, considerando il racconto un momento determinante di elaborazione dell'esperienza. Verrà inoltre dato spazio al contesto del workshop: il Gargano, oltre a rappresentare una meta turistica estiva molto ambita, possiede una tradizione architettonico/paesaggistico/culturale secolare che sarà il punto di partenza per questo tuffo nell'Europa, attraverso due visite guidate. Attività principali: - dal respiro al suono: esercizi vocali miranti alla creazione di un respiro comune e di un ambiente sonoro - il corpo che racconta: esercizi di espressione corporea che focalizzino l'attenzione non sui movimenti ma su senso degli stessi - racconto del gusto/racconto di sé: dallo scambio dei sapori allo scambio delle esperienze - studio collettivo di frammenti della commedia Uccelli di Aristofane, con ironica attenzione a: desiderio/necessità di una città ideale rapporto potere/sopruso - realizzazione di una performance finale Expected outputs (especially in terms of the learning outcomes for the participants) - Migliore capacità di lavorare in gruppo in soggetti portati ad agire e decidere individualmente - Acquisizione di strumenti che permettano l'utilizzo del non verbale come risorsa comunicativa aggiuntiva - superamento di pregiudizievole barriere socio/culturali - Sviluppo delle capacità relazionali/comunicative interculturali - Spinta motivazionale alla mobilità negli adulti - consumption (i.e. organic food, agricultural products realized in farmlands that have been confiscated to criminal organizations). Learners will visit local experiences managed by volunteers in the field of responsible and social tourism, fair trade, with a particular focus on gastronomy and sustainable tourism. Visits will be organized in these structures so that the participants would share their experiences with social workers (i.e. slow food restaurants, educational farmhouse, social enterprises in agriculture, local artisans' atelier) . Learners will be guided round a gastronomic tour to discover Sicilian traditional flavours and places. They will also take part in seminars with volunteers and experts in local economy to reflect on their territories. Local migrant organizations will play an active role in the workshop by promoting their culture through events and gastronomic tradition. Young international artists working in the field of visual arts in the broadest sense

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

The Art Workshop was initiated in 1998 by the Luxembourg artist Bert Theis, in close collaboration with Paul di Felice, on the occasion of his art project for Manifesta 2 – European Biennale for Contemporary Art. Every summer since then, Casino Luxembourg has been organising artist residencies grouping together twelve young international artists, working in the field of visual arts in the broadest sense (i.e. photography, video art, installation art, painting, drawing, new media arts etc.), who are selected through an open call for application, around specific themes.

Two or three workshop leaders work with the group of artists. The workshop starts with a presentation of the participants and their projects. Public lectures by international artists, art theorists, curators and others are also organised on the occasion. The lecturers are available for exchange with the artists during the time of their stay. During the week, a daily meeting takes place between the artists and the workshop leaders and coordinators. The weekend is dedicated to visits of exhibitions and art galleries in Luxembourg and in the “Grande Région” (Belgium, France, Germany). At the end of the workshop, a public presentation of the works elaborated by the artists takes place. It is the opening of the exhibition following the residency.

Abenteuer - Musikreise durch Europa mit Rhythmus und Gesang Volksmusik Europas entdecken

Subject area: Artistic education, also including Arts and Crafts and Music
Health education

Working language(s): DE

Target Group + Translation:

Kulturinteressierte Erwachsene jeden Alters aus möglichst vielen Programmländern
Bevorzugt werden Personen:

- die wenig Erfahrung mit Auslandsaufenthalten und keine Erfahrung mit Trommeln und Gesang haben
- und aus dem ländlichen Raum kommen.

Die Dozenten haben Erfahrung mit schutzbedürftigen Gesellschaftsgruppen jeden Alters. Der Workshop eignet sich für Personen mit Burn-out Syndrom.

Expected number of participants: 17

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Der Workshop ist auf zwei Pfeilern aufgebaut: (1) Singen von Volksliedern aus Europa – mit (2) den dazu passenden Rythmen: Trommeln, Bau eines „Cajóns“, Klangimprovisationen, Bodypercussion.

Volkslieder singen: Es werden einfache ein- und zwei-, oder falls möglich, dreistimmige traditionelle Lieder aus europäischen Ländern sowie Stücke aus dem ‚Worldmusik‘ – Repertoire gesungen. Wichtig ist, dass die Teilnehmer typische Kompositionen aus ihren Ländern mitbringen, die dann in der Gruppe erarbeitet werden. Es werden keine musikalischen oder sängerischen Vorkenntnisse verlangt. Nur Lust zum Singen sollte jeder mitbringen.

Vom Singen zum Trommeln: Durch die verschiedenen Lebensweisen in Europa hat sich auch die Volksmusik unterschiedlich entwickelt. Dies hat auch großen Einfluss auf den Rhythmus genommen. Bekannt sind Walzer, Polka, Marsch, Ländler, Boarische, Mazurkas, Schottische, Zwiefache, aber auch Menuette. Im Trommel-Workshop werden diese Variationen erkundet und mit Hilfe der dazugehörigen Volkslieder stimmlich vertont. Ein besonderes Highlight ist der Bau eines Cajóns, ein aus Peru stammendes perkussives Musikinstrument, das jeder Teilnehmer mit nach Hause nehmen kann. Den Lehrgangsteilnehmern stehen, neben dem selbstgebauten Cajón, etliche weitere Perkussionsinstrumente zur Verfügung.

Abschlusskonzert: Gemeinsam mit professionellen Musikern findet in der Kirche von Remerschen ein Abschlusskonzert mit einem anschliessenden geselligen Beisammensein mit der lokalen Bevölkerung und mit Spezialitäten aus der Moselregion statt.

Die beiden Dozenten sind hervorragend ausgebildete Musikpädagogen, die auch über die Grenzen Luxemburgs hinaus über eine langjährige Erfahrung verfügen.

We have several year's cooperation with experts, trainers and lecturers in the field of cultural heritage for example from Liptov Museum in Liptovský Hrádok, Central Slovak Museum in Banská Bystrica, etc. Our organization specializes in various forms of educational programs in education and training of cultural and natural heritage for children, pupils and students of various types and grades of schools, teachers of various types and grades of schools, for the blind and partially sighted people, but also for the general public.

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

Our organization, from the beginning of its work, keep cooperation with the Union of blind and partially sighted people in Slovakia, the Related school for blind and partially sighted in Levoca, with different types of special schools, with the blind and partially sighted people with various degree of physical or mental disability. We organize educational programs for the groups as special exhibitions, workshops and so on. We try to reduce social exclusion of people and involve them in the various cultural programs. Value and social inclusion of citizens are also added to our educational activities, because our organization operates in a region with high unemployment (nearly 30% unemployment in district of Roznava). Seniors are also actively involved to our activities, as lectors or by organizing educational activities in nursing homes or in clubs for pensioners. We cooperate with the Primary school in Vukovar, Croatia. Vukovar town was probably the most affected by the war with Serbia in 1991. Every family in this town was marked by some tragedy. The citizens could come back to the completely destroyed town after long years and started looking for their relatives. Now, they are trying to build a "new life" and their "new history". In the frame of this cooperation we realized the events focused on social inclusion of the socially disadvantaged region in Croatia.
